VOL. LXXVIII—No. 253 CITY OF KINGSTON, N. Y., SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 13, 1949. PRICE FIVE CENTS

Summer School, Park Children Have Own Freedom Train Time

Special Schedule Is Arranged for Educational Visit

Theron L. Culver of the city school system and Andrew J. Murphy, III, of the recreation department have completed arrangements for pupils of the summer school and the children who attend the parks of the city to view the exhibits on the New York State Freedom Train.

The schedule calls for the children of Kingston to visit the train on Tuesday, August 16, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 3 p. m. The committee feels that if this schedule is followed as closely as possible it will save a lot of confusion and will eliminate crowds gathering at one time, making it impossible for anyone to enjoy the exhibits.

In order to get as many of the children as possible to see these exhibits, the Recreation Department has arranged to have the locomotive of the 40 and 8, Voiture 381, Ulster county, pick up the children from the various public playgrounds in the city and transport them to and from the train. The children in the different parts of the city who desire to see these exhibits on the train are requested to gather at the various parks at the time stated below:

Cornell, 10 a. m.
Block, 10:30 a. m.
Hasbrouck, 11 a. m.
Hutton, 11:30 a. m.
St. Mary's, 12:50 p. m.
Sahler, 1:30 p. m.
Forsyth, 2 p. m.

Also on August 16 the period between 9 and 10:15 in the morning is being reserved for the students of the summer grade schools, Kingston High School summer session and the Academy of St. Ursula. It is requested that others do not make their plans to come at that time. Students of St. Ursula Academy will meet with Mrs. Gadd at the Freedom Train at 10:15.

In the schedule for the children on Tuesday the time between 12 and 1 o'clock is being left free so that people who are employed might use a part of their noon hour to visit the train.

Provision also has been made to have a person at each exhibit to answer questions.

On Wednesday pupils of the Onteora Central School will visit the train. Arrangements have been made by the school district in cooperation with the Pine Hill-Kingston Bus Corp. to sell student tickets at a special rate.

Wednesday the annual Ulster County Fair and Farmer's Field Day also will be held in Kingston and large numbers of residents of the county are expected to view the exhibits.

The hours on both Tuesday and Wednesday are from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. There is no admission charge.

Urges Polio Prayers

Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, today addressed all pastors in the Archdiocese asking them to request at all Masses on Sunday that the faithful join in a "private triduum of prayer imploring the mercy of Almighty God and the intercession of Our Blessed Mother to put a cease to the scourge of the present epidemic of infantile paralysis." "This triduum," the cardinal's letter continued, "should be made by families at home on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, August 14 to 16. It is suggested that each family should join together in prayer.

Stelz Buys, Repairs Coupe, Loses It in Fire

A 1932 Plymouth coupe which had just been purchased by Francis Stelz of 14 Stuyvesant street was destroyed by fire in this city Friday evening, the police and fire departments reported.

According to the police, Stelz had just completed a motor job on the automobile at the James Ryan gasoline station at 649 Broadway and was attempting to start the vehicle when it burst into flames.

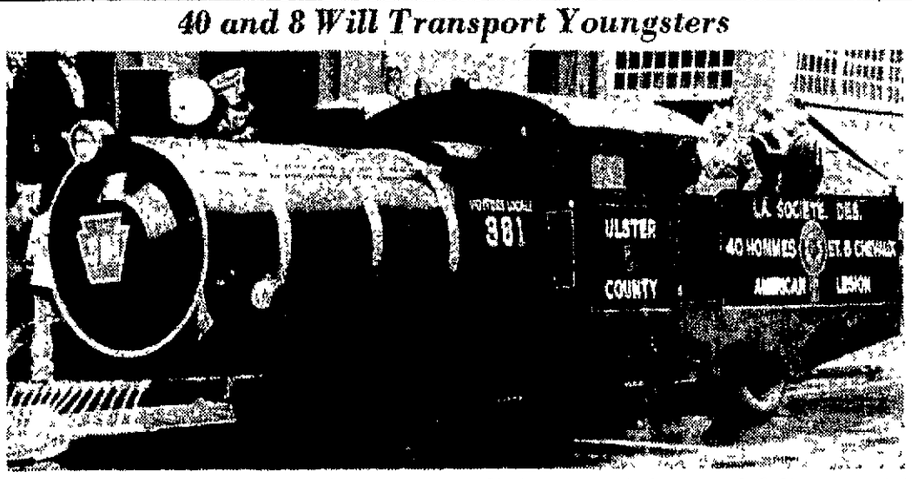

On the arrival of the fire department flames were shooting about 30 feet into the air, Deputy Fire Chief James M. Brett reported. The fire was made more extensive by large amounts of grease and oil and rubber tires in the grease pit, Brett said.

The deputy chief said the fire was probably caused by excessive gasoline from a flooded carburetor dropping into the grease pit and becoming ignited by a spark from the booster battery.

The blaze was extinguished with a hydrant stream, using a fog nozzle. The house at 15 Van Deusen street, which was endangered by the flames, was wet down by firemen as a precautionary measure, they said.

Patrolmen Charles Hoehing and Raymond Wells, who were sent to direct traffic at the scene, reported the automobile was a total loss. The car had just been purchased by Stelz and had not yet been used, no license plates having been obtained, police said.

40 and 8 Will Transport Youngsters

Through the courtesy of Ulster County Voiture 381, La Societe 40 Hommes & 8 Cheveaux, children from the various city playgrounds will get transportation to and from the Freedom Train. The big locomotive, symbolic of the veterans' organization connected with the American Legion, will be used to gave them rides so they can make their visits according to schedule. (Freeman Photo).

156th Will Return Home Today After Upstate Maneuvers

First Contingent to Arrive at 3 P.M.; More Are Due in Tonight and Sunday Afternoon

The first detachment of members of the 156th Field Artillery, New York National Guard, returning from summer maneuvers at Pine Camp, is due to reach Kingston by truck convoy about 3 p. m. today, Matthew Bence, armorer at the New York State Armory, has announced.

Another section of the approximately 225 members of the 156th will arrive by troop train at 9:30 p. m. on the West Shore line. The rear detachment is expected to arrive sometime Sunday afternoon, Bence added.

Members of the 156th are part of more than 10,000 National Guardsmen and organized reserves from upstate regiments who moved out of Pine Camp today to make room for guard trainees from the metropolitan area.

The local unit left Saturday, July 30, to spend 15 days of rigorous training at the upstate military reservation at Pine Camp.

According to the Associated Press, 13 special trains tomorrow will bring into Pine Camp about 8,500 guardsman of the 42nd Infantry Division and approximately 1,800 reservists of the 77th Infantry.

The two-week training routine of the New York city contingents will conclude summer maneuvers at the military reservation.

Members of the 27th Infantry Division and the 98th Organized Reserves began their homeward trip this morning after two weeks in the field, the A.P. said.

Pope Is Satisfied

Castel Gandolfo, Italy, Aug 13 (AP)—Pope Pius XII said today he believes the controversy between Francis Cardinal Spellman and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt over the question of federal aid to Catholic schools has been resolved satisfactorily. The pontiff expressed this opinion in a special audience given five American newspaper correspondents at his summer residence here.

Holds Against Assaults

Canton, Aug 13 (AP)—Kanhsien, gateway city to Canton, was reported standing firm today against furious assaults by from 50,000 to 60,00 Communist troops.

Ulster State Aid for Second Quarter of '49 Is $95,756.87

Municipalities to Get $84,233,371.03 in Per Capita Money in Fiscal Year

Albany, Aug. 13—State assistance totaling $21,058,359.53 is being distributed today to the cities, town and villages of New York, Comptroller Frank C. Moore revealed this afternoon.

The amount represents the second quarter payment of per capita aid under the Moore Plan for the 1949-50 state fiscal year. During this fiscal year the state will apportion $84,233,371.03 in per capita aid to the various municipalities.

Ulster county's share under the Moore Plan is $95,756.87, according to the Department of Audit and Control in Albany.

Eligible for the assistance are 62 cities, 932 towns and 549 villages. Checks were mailed today by the State Department of Audit and Control to the fiscal officer of each locality.

Payments to 54 villages have been delayed until it is determined whether taxes levied by these villages in the current fiscal year are within the limitations prescribed by the State Constitution.

New York city receives $12,560,447 25 for its second quarter payment.

The first per capita assistance payment under the Moore Plan, which supplanted the former erratic shared tax system, were made three years ago this month. This form of state assistance is distributed to local governments in May, August, November and February.

The Moore plan provides that cities receive $6 75 per person, villages $3, and towns $3.55 per person each state fiscal year. The population of the village is included in computing the payment to the towns so that the state distributes $6 55 for each village inhabitant.

A gradual transition was provided for municipalities which gained or lost state assistance under the new Plan. The standard payment will be in effect for all cities, towns and villages when the 1950 census figures are announced.

In issuing the second quarter checks today, Comptroller Moore reminded the fiscal officers of the local governments that the checks should be presented for payment as promptly as possible.

The comptroller pointed out that in some instances state aid checks dating back to May of 1947 still have not been cashed.

A check of department records reveals 20 localities have thus far failed to present for payment State Aid checks issued in the past. Four of the localities have not cashed checks issued in 1947, five are delinquent in cashing checks issued last year and 11 others have not presented for payment checks earlier this year.

The largest of these checks is one for $5,094.52, issued in May of 1948. The smallest is for $22.98, issued at the same time.

Wallet With $682 Found by Boy, 6, In Food Market

A wallet containing $682 in cash and $262 50 in pay checks was found in the A & P market at 106 Prince street at 5 p. m. Friday by six-year-old Donald Peterson of 5 Wilbur avenue, police reported.

Young Peterson discovered the wallet in one of the aisles of the store and took it to the store manager, who notified police. Donald was not sure of the amount of cash in the wallet, but knew it contained "a large sum."

Patrolmen Thomas McGrane and James Burns were detailed to assist the boy in bringing the money to police headquarters, where it was counted and its amount determined. Identification was found, establishing it as the property of Wesley Graham Parish of Lake Katrine.

Parish was notified and came to headquarters to claim the money and reward the boy.

Boy, 13, Has Polio at City Hospital; Ulster's 23rd Case

A 13-year-old New York city boy was admitted to Kingston Hospital at 6:30 a. m. today for treatment of polio, the Ulster County Health Department reported.

The boy's case is the twenty-third case of polio to be reported in this county this season.

The health department reported the boy had been vacationing in this county, but information was not available this morning as to the definite area in which he was staying when stricken.

Of the 23 cases reported, only seven are residents of Ulster county, and only one, that of a three-year-old girl, is a resident of Kingston.

Pleasant Week-End

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 13 (AP)—A pleasant week-end to you, the weatherman said today. The 90-plus heat wave has gone. The Weather Bureau predicted temperatures would range from the upper 70's and lower eighties throughout New York. Fair skies were forecast, except for scattered showers in the southeastern section today. Up to an inch of rain fell yesterday in many areas.

Marine Explorer Plans 6,000-Foot, Icy Dive

Smuggler's Cove, Calif., Aug. 13 (AP) — A man and science were ready today for a dramatic attempt to conquer the crushing pressure of ocean water more than a mile deep.

If all goes well, by nightfall Otis Barton, 48, of Boston, Harvard-trained marine explorer, will be the first human in history to have peered into the icy depths 6,000 feet down, where unknown, presumably weird creatures live and sunlight never penetrates.

The location for this colossal dunking venture is near this cove on the southeast shore of Santa Cruz island, 25 miles south of Santa Barbara.

Barton in this world record dive attempt hoped to open a new frontier of scientific exploration—studies of possible food and oil resources in the ocean depths, underwater vegetation, information for military usage, charting of the ocean floor's mountains, valleys and canyons.

He expected to encounter ice water at 4,000 feet and equipped himself with woolen clothing and blankets.

The vehicle for his descent is a cast steel sphere, 57½ inches in diameter weighing 7,000 pounds, lowered by a ⅞-inch steel cable by a crane from a 100-foot steel barge. Its shell is 1¾ inches thick at the thinnest point. It has a 15-inch door and two windows of fused quartz 3 inches thick, one 5¾ inches across, the other 2¾ inches in diameter. Seals around these apertures tighten as pressure increases.

Pressure at 6,000 feet is estimated at 27,000,000 pounds, or 26,600 pounds per square inch, compared with 15 pounds per square inch normal atmospheric pressure at sea level.

Two lights outside the sphere illuminate the depths for Barton to see and for a power-driven camera to take motion pictures. He has a telephone line to tell of his observations.

Agencies Money Bill Cracks Capital Jam

Washington, Aug. 13 (AP)—The appropriations log jam in Congress cracked a little today with the approval by House and Senate conferees of a $7,617,739,361 money bill financing a number of independent agencies.

The conference committee's measure, which now must be approved by the House and Senate, totals $534,232 808 more than the original House bill, but $45,689,962 less than the one passed by the Senate.

The Budget Bureau had asked $433,604,469 more than the final bill carries. It includes funds for such agencies as the Atomic Energy Commission, Maritime Commission, Veterans Administration and Civil Service Commission.

Police Seek Rabbi In $300,000 Fraud; Wife Is Arrested

New York, Aug. 13 (AP)—A rabbi accused of swindling members of his congregation out of thousands of dollars by telling them the money would aid Israel—was sought by police today.

He was identified as Solomon Eickenstein, a rabbi of Manhattan's lower east side.

The rabbi's wife, charged with being an accomplice in the purported scheme, was arrested last night at a hospital, where she gave birth to a baby Thursday.

A policewoman was posted at her beside.

Police, who said the alleged frauds may involve up to $300,000, gave this version of the operation.

The rabbi told his Jewish congregation they could help Israel's economy by buying business materials from residents of the new state. He offered to arrange the transactions.

The rabbi put through about $500,000 worth of deals, but it cost the purchasers some 15 per cent more than American market prices.

After purchasers began to complain about the prices, the rabbi announced new plans—henceforth, the Israeli goods could be bought at U. S. prices, and it would still aid the Israeli businessmen.

Later, police said Sidney Genack, a diamond merchant, gave the rabbi $58,133.95 to buy jewels through Israeli diamond merchants.

Thereafter, the rabbi allegedly disappeared. Genack took his story to authorities.

Another man, Aaron Maged, of Brooklyn, told police he gave Mrs. Eichenstein $30,300 in cash to be forwarded to Maged's brother in Tel Aviv, but that the money never reached there.

Police said a Manhattan grand jury has indicted the rabbi on charges of fraud and grand larceny, and his wife for grand larceny and acting in concert with him.

Radioactive Rock Is Found in Arkansas

Rolla, Mo., Aug. 13 (AP)—Discovery of two deposits of radioactive rock in north central Arkansas was reported yesterday.

One deposit was announced by Frank Thomas, a private mining engineer. The second was confirmed by Leon Depuy an official of the U. S. Bureau of Mines.

Thomas said a small quantity of unidentified radioactive ore was found this week in the Ozark mountain country near Harrison, Ark. A sample was sent to the U. S. Bureau of Mines at Rolla for tests.

Depuy was reluctant to talk but he disclosed the other find was made about two months ago.

Seek Motive in Sending Mrs. Truman, Notables Free Freezer Cabinets

Burglars Take $600 In Goods at Briggs'

The J. Ellis Briggs appliance store at the intersection of Albany avenue extension and the East Chester street by-pass was entered sometime last night or early today and more than $600 worth of merchandise taken, Sheriff George C. Smith reported today.

Listed as missing are a television set and a table on which it stood, a table-model radio, a portable radio with battery, a table-model Radion and a cash box with papers and a small amount of cash.

The theft was discovered shortly before 9 a. m. today when employes entered the store to begin work.

Entry apparently was made through a large sliding door in the rear center of the building leading to the cellar, the sheriff said.

The door was forced open with a bar, snapping two locks, Sheriff Smith said. The thieves then apparently went up the cellar stairs and entered the showroom by prying open another door, damaging the walls alongside the door, he said.

Since the store is usually well lighted at night and the highway heavily travelled, Sheriff Smith stated that it is possible that someone driving by may have seen a truck or automobile parked near the store, but paid no attention at the time. If anyone remembers seeing anything which may be of help in solving the crime, the sheriff asks they contact him at the court house in Kingston or state police at Lake Katrine, who are also investigating.

Senator Taft Is Overnight Visitor in City With Wife

ROBERT A. TAFT

G.O.P. Policy Chairman Is Silent on Issues; Couple Welcomed by Sen. Wicks

Robert A. Taft, senior senator from Ohio and chairman of the Senate's G.O.P. Policy Committee, spent last night at the Governor Clinton Hotel. He was accompanied by Mrs. Taft.

Senator and Mrs. Taft stopped here overnight as they were motoring to Montreal, Canada, to their summer camp. Mrs. Taft will remain at the camp, while the senator will return Sunday to Washington for the remaining portion of this Congressional session.

Although the senator chose not to comment upon any of the issues before Congress at the present time, he told The Freeman that prospects of an early adjournment of Congress are not very bright.

"It doesn't look as though we'll get away before Labor Day," he said. In fact, he said jokingly, sometimes "it begins to seem Congress will never adjourn."

Second Visit Here

Both senator and Mrs. Taft agreed "the trip up (from Washington) has been beautiful." Senator Taft said this is his second visit to Kingston, the first being about 12 years ago. He added that he has heard that Ulster county "is good Republican country" and an appropriate place for him to stay.

The Tafts left Washington Friday morning and drove up through Reading, Allentown and Bethlehem, Pa., Port Jervis, Ellenville and into Kingston on Route 209, Mrs. Taft said.

On hand to greet Senator and Mrs. Taft was State Senator Arthur H. Wicks of Kingston, who

Offer Is Rejected

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., Aug. 13—The bituminous coal wage conference is in recess again, leaving the coal fields with the same uneasy truce and the three-day work week. Negotiations for John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers and northern and western operators met here for two hours yesterday for the first time since July 27. There were talks of a crisis, but all that developed was an offer by the operators to continue the old wage contract for another 20 months. The union said no.

Appointed to Board

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 13 (AP)—The Rev. Charles Bermingham of Babylon was appointed by Governor Dewey today to the board of visitors at Central Islip State Hospital on Long Island. Father Bermingham will fill until December 31, 1953, the unexpired term of Mrs. Preston Davie of New York city, who resigned recently.

Advertising Man May Shed Light in Case; Is Subpoenaed to Tell Investigators

Want All Facts

Milwaukee Businessman Says Units Paid for by Perfume Concern

Washington, Aug. 13 (AP)—Senators investigating five percenters today sought a motive for the reported shipment of unasked-for home freezers to Mrs. Harry S. Truman and other Washington notables.

Chief Counsel William P. Rogers said the Senate's special investigations subcommittee has a subpoena out for Harry Hoffman, Milwaukee advertising man whose name cropped up in testimony at the inquiry. Lawmakers hoped he might shed some light on the subject.

A committee member said privately that he has seen invoices showing that a freezer was sent to Mrs. Truman at Independence, Mo., and that two were shipped Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan, President Truman's army aide.

The senator said invoices also list shipments to Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson, Federal Reserve Governor James K. Vardaman, and Presidential Secretary Matt Connelly.

The vouchers—not yet in the record—are dated 1945 and early 1946. At that time Vinson was first reconversion director and later secretary of the treasury. Vardaman was Mr. Truman's naval aide.

Merchant Testifies

The invoices were brought to the inquiry by Albert J. Gross, a Milwaukee businessman who testified Thursday that he shipped a freezer to Vaughan and other prominent Washingtonians. He said all of the units were paid for by the Albert Verley Co., the Chicago perfume firm for which John Maragon worked in 1945.

Maragon, who once had entree to the White House, is a key figure in the committee's search for influence peddlers.

Gross' testimony was cut off after he named Vaughan as a recipient of one of the freezers. Chairman Hoey (D.-N. C.) said the committee wanted to get all the facts before putting out the rest of the names.

Another committee member said he was told Mrs. Truman sent a thank-you note to Gross, thinking he was the donor.

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross said yesterday he had "no information whatever" when he was questioned about the reports dealing with Mrs. Truman and the others. Vinson said he preferred to have the facts come out at the Senate investigation.

The senator who saw the shipment invoices wasn't sure about whether one of the units was tagged for Secretary of the Treasury Snyder, who was named as a recipient in one news story.

Senator McCarthy, (R.-Wis.) looked over a published list which included all of those reportedly mentioned in the invoices except Connelly, and declared:

"My only comment is that George Allen should not be on the list."

Allen, an intimate friend of Mr. Truman, formerly was a director of the Reconstruction Finance Corp.

Says Gross Is Clear

McCarthy told reporters Gross is "entirely in the clear" with respect to the mysterious freezers.

Freight Hike Costing $293 Million Means More Truck, Plane, Boat Users

New York, Aug. 13 (AP)—Rail freight rates are going up again. This is calculated to cost the nation's shippers around $293 million a year. But in some quarters there is doubt as to whether the shippers will pay all of that to the railroads.

Each time rail rates have been hiked since the war—they have gone up a total of 57 per cent for a total of $3 billion a year in additional revenue—a few more shippers have turned to other means of moving goods.

It's no accident that you see more and larger trucks and heavy freight trailers on the highways. It's not just nostalgia or a flair for the romantic and picturesque that has increased the number and schedule of barges on the nation's waterway's. Nor is it just happenstance that has put more freight cargoes into the airlines— shippers find that airfreight rates are moving into competitive range with rail freight rates, especially in cases where speed of delivery enters into it. And there now are more miles of oil and gas pipelines in the country than there are miles of rails.

94,000 Fewer Cars

At the time the Interstate Commerce Commission was announcing the latest rate increase, for an average of about four per cent, the Association of American Railroads was releasing its latest carloading figures, showing them currently 18.4 per cent below a year ago and 20.8 per cent below two years ago. For the year so far the railroads have been loading an average of 94,000 fewer cars each week, than in the same 31 weeks last year.

Offsetting the extra $293 million a year the railroads expect to get from the latest hike, plus the $391 million from a rate increase this year, the roads are going to be tapped for an estimated $380 million a year in additional costs as a result of the 40-hour week, which goes into effect next month.

To Close Week-ends

The New York Central is already moving to whittle this down some, if possible. When its 83,700 non-operating employes go on a five-day week next month, the road is going to reduce sharply its passenger and freight station operations over week-ends. Hundreds of stations will be closed Saturday and Sundays henceforth, the railroad says.

The roads also are expected to do something about truck competition. Rail circles say that in some cases rates will be lowered rather than raised, in an effort to lure lost customers back.

Already, in the New York milkshed, rail rates on carrying milk have come down 27 per cent. It was reported at the time that the roads acted to avert threats of large milk truck fleets being bought by big milk companies to do their own moving of milk to the market.

Net Income Drops

The financial squeeze on the railroads, which presumably led to the I.C.C. rate hiking action, was shown by the first half earnings and revenues, as estimated by the Association of American Railroads. For the six months the net operating income of the nation's class one railroads was put at $313 million, compared with $411 million in the first half of 1948. Net income was estimated at $173 million, compared with $262 million a year ago.

However, the result of the drop in their earloadings is shown even better in the figures for total operating revenues before expenses. The roads took in $4.4 billion during the first half of the year, but that was 5.2 per cent less than the year before.

Bronx Cyclist Fined After Kingston Accident

Sheldon Forel, 21, of the Bronx, driver of a motorcycle on which he and another person were injured Thursday afternoon, was fined $25 by Justice of the Peace Edward Brosky of Rosendale Friday afternoon on a charge of driving a cycle without an operator's license, the sheriff's department reported.

According to the sheriff's department report, Forel and Miss Loretta Miller, 20, of New York city, were thrown from the cycle when it skidded while rounding a turn on Lucas avenue extension about 5 p. m. Thursday.

Both persons were taken to Kingston Hospital, where Miss Miller was admitted for treatment for a badly cut right leg, sheriff's men said. Her condition was reported as "fair" by hospital authorities today. Forel was released from the hospital following treatment for a lacerated right arm.

Visit the Freedom Train

No state in the Union can claim a prouder heritage of freedom than New York. Today, perhaps more than ever before, it is important that that heritage be passed on to the next generation unimpaired. The Kingston Daily Freeman is happy to cooperate with the New York State Freedom Train Commission in bringing to Kingston on August 16 and 17 the great documents of our state and national history.

President Has Big Speaking Tour Ahead

Washington, Aug 13 (AP)—The widely traveled man in the White House is planning to outdo himself in the next few weeks.

President Truman has scheduled four out of town speaking engagements, starting with a talk to the Veterans of Foreign Wars at Miami, Fla., Aug. 22.

He will speak next to the American Legion at Philadelphia, Aug. 29.

Then he'll do an "iron man" stunt on Labor Day Sept. 5. He plans to speak at both Pittsburgh, Pa.—at noon—and in Des Moines, Iowa, late in the afternoon.

The President has traveled more than 125,000 miles since he entered the White House April 12, 1945, not including his occasional cruises on the Potomac aboard the yacht Williamsburg and a few side trips by automobile in the vicinity of Washington.

Bronx Youth Is Shot After Robbery Attempt

New York, Aug. 13 (AP)—A policeman last night shot and killed one of a group of young men who allegedly attacked and robbed a 34-year-old Negro.

The dead youth was identified as Thomas Waldron, 18, of the Bronx.

He was shot by a patrolman as he and his companions were fleeing from the scene of the attack on East 138th street. The policeman said he fired when the group refused to heed his orders to halt.

One of the group, Vincent Bullion, 16, also of the Bronx, was apprehended Police said two others escaped.

The robbery victim, Clarence E. Morgan, said one of the men approached him and asked for a cigarette, and then the group attacked him.

Police said Morgan's wallet was found on Bullion, who was quoted as admitting he participated in the attack.

Do You Remember

by SOPHIE MILLER

Have been asked to mention other towns in Ulster county once in a while, so I dedicate today's column to Ellenville and Saugerties as taken from Directory of 1873-4 loaned by Sam Bernstein. I see the Exchange Hotel in Saugerties has a large illustrated advertisement on the back of the book. It was owned by William D. W. Cunyes. Advertisement read: "Table furnished with the best the season affords. First-class livery attached, with single and four-in-hand turnouts. Stage to and from the hotel. Boats and cars free." Peter Cantine is listed then as lawyer and surrogate; Benjamin M. Coon, justice of peace, lawyer and notary public; Thomas S. Dawes and J. H. DeWitt, physicians. A. E. & W. E. Feroe had their ale brewery down at the steamboat wharf; A. H. Knaust a grocery store on Partition street; Charles G. Liscomb's drug store on Main street. A busy man must have been E. McEnroe for he was listed as grocer, hotel keeper, also manufactured Mingo Root Beer and sarsaparilla. Joseph W. Reinhard had a hair dressing establishment in the Phoenix Hotel. A livery stable owned by W. N. & A. Pultz was at Partition street. I see two Saugerties banks, the National and the Savings Banks. The Sheffield Paper Mills were near the ferry. Who perhaps remembers Dr. Eliza Vedder and Dr. John Vedder, it seems they had their offices at Bridge corner Jane. The Western Union Telegraph office was managed by F. M. Baldwin at Partition street. North River blue stone was sold wholesale by Russell and Myers. The Saugerties Variety Iron Works which manufactured wagon thimble skeins, pumps, stone crushers etc., was owned by William S. Van Hoesen & Co.

In Ellenville, the Terwilliger House on Canal corner Market was owned by Constable and De Garmo. Also the Crisman House is listed at Main near Canal. I see a listing for W. C Derby, a dentist on Canal street. The Ellenville Glass Works had a store and office at Canal street. At that time the Ellenville Journal was published by S. M. Taylor and Ellenville Press by Benedict Brothers. Who remembers the grist mill run by William Morse and his son, or the Ulster Seminary at Maple avenue of which A. McIntyre was principal?

Van Wagoner and Munson had a drug store at Canal. Bernard Geisler had the Union Meat Market at foot of Canal street, near the glass works. Martin Frellewch besides being a popular saloon keeper at Canal near Market streets was also the manufacturer of the celebrated Spruce Beer. The fashionable hair-dresser of Ellenville was known far and wide for his $1.00 "Carley Hair Restorative." Dutcher and Holmes were manufacturers and wholesale and retail dealers in all kinds of furniture on Canal street near Main. They also did undertaking in all its branches.

I've been asked about the cracker factory in Kingston. It was run by John P. Reading at Hasbrouck avenue, near Mill street by the tracks in Rondout back in 1873. They made lemon biscuits, ginger snaps and many other kinds. John Harder told me he was often sent down there with a big empty basket and ten cents and they would fill his basket full of crackers that got broken in the making. He said Reading's crackers were delicious, the real old fashioned, non-synthetic kind. Um-Um!

C.I.O. Is Victor

Cortland, N. Y., Aug. 13 (AP)—A C.I.O. United Steelworkers local is the victor in the first collective bargaining election involving the C.I.O. since union officials signed non-Communist affidavits July 27. Striking employes of Wickwire Brothers, Inc., voted yesterday to continue representation by Local 2371. The vote was 510 for the C.I.O. local, 373 for the International Association of Machinists (Ind.), and one vote against any union. An official of the National Labor Relations Board said it was the first test since national C.I.O. leaders signed the affidavits required by the Taft-Hartley Law, thus making C.I.O. locals eligible again to appear on ballots. The N.L.R.B. ordered the election after a group of workers gave notice they wanted to leave the C.I.O. local.

Good Taste Today

WHEN THE TRUTH IS NOT POLITE

This letter explains a situation that might also be applied to many others: "How can one be polite and yet be truthful? I was shown a portrait painted and already hung of a friend in her living room. She evidently thought it wonderful and expected me to be equally enthusiastic. I didn't like it at all and was hard pressed to know what to say."

The only way out is to look for a detail that you can praise. You can generally find something.

Don't Detract From Bride

Dear Mrs. Post: If the bride is marrying in a pastel colored afternoon dress and having but one attendant, what should the attendant wear so as not to detract from the effectiveness of the bride?

Answer: A print for the attendant that has the color of the bride's dress repeated in it or a darker shade of the same color is the best suggestion I can make.

Door Prize

Dear Mrs. Post: My aunt gave me tickets to a card party and the tickets had chances on door prizes. I took a friend. Her ticket won a door prize. Now she feels that maybe she should give this to my aunt.

Answer: There is no obligation for her to give it away unless she wants to—and this might be to either your aunt or to you.

Name Question

Dear Mrs. Post: I named my first son for my father instead of my husband, and now my third son has given his son the same name. Will this young one now be 3rd? My father is still living.

Answer: Although your first son was named for your father, adding his own father's last name changed the name so that no suffix was necessary. But now that your other son has given his son this identical name, the latter is John Henry Blank, 2nd. (Not junior, which is always the son or grandson — never the nephew.)

Old Fashioned?

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it incorrect to write "Kindness of . . ." on the envelope of a message being carried by a personal friend. One seldom sees it any more.

Answer: It is both courteous and correct.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

By HAL BOYLE

New York, (AP)—Gen. J. Lawton Collins, the new army chief of staff, earned his nickname "Lightning Joe"—on many battlefields.

The graying, 53-year-old soldier—one of the handsomest men in the army—was one of the most colorful and energetic field commanders of the Second World War.

He was tough and cool and won his battles first hand. He ran his famous Seventh Corps as efficiently as any top business executive. An all around soldier, he could plan a battle, fight it through—and encourage his own frontline troops with his presence.

This was his battle formula:

"Outguess the enemy, keep him off balance and never stop driving."

Some generals are boxers, and some are punchers. "Lightning Joe" is a puncher. It was his faculty of sustained drive that led Gen. Omar Nelson Bradley to give him the critical battle assignments that built his fame.

Few Can Match Record

And few generals in American history can match his combat record. His victories stretch from Guadalcanal to the Elbe. Collins came to Europe after successfully completing the mopup of Japanese on Guadalcanal and New Guinea.

His Seventh Corps seized Utah Beach in Normandy. It freed Cherbourg, the first French metropolis liberated from the Nazis. It broke the crust at St. Lo. It was first to crack the Siegfried Line and capture a major German city—Aachen. It took Cologne, too, expanded the first bridgehead across the Rhine at Remagen, and at war's end linked up with the Russians along the Elbe.

But "Lightning Joe," who never dodged a scrap, once got into a fight he wasn't looking for.

It happened in the "Battle of the Bulge" in Belgium in December, 1944. The German breakthrough imperiled the American line of communications, and Gen. Eisenhower temporarily put his First and Ninth Armies under the field leadership of Field Marshal Montgomery.

Monty immediately named "Lightning Joe" to head a reserve corps. This corps was to be used as a counterblow at the right time—when the German drive had been contained. But in the meantime it was, under strict orders to refrain from attack.

One of the outfits in the reserve corps was the "Hell on Wheels" Second Armored Division, led by Maj. Gen. Ernie "Old Grave Voice" Harmon.

One of Best Blitzes

After a spectacular 100-mile night march, Harmon's tankers reached their assembly area near Celles, Belgium. Then they were started to run into German outposts. Moving more swiftly than expected, the Nazis were only a few miles from the Meuse river. If they reached it and took Dinant the American armies would be split in half.

Harmon immediately relayed this information to Collins, who asked:

"What do you want to do, Ernie?"

"I want to attack, but we're under orders not to," said Harmon. "And there isn't time to get the orders changed."

"Go ahead, Ernie," said Collins. "I'll take the responsibility."

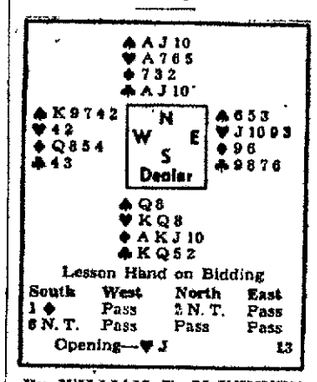

In a great grinding battle, fought in snow and fog, Harmon's division annihilated the German armor—and halted the German thrust.

Field Marshal Montgomery, angered at first because he thought his orders had been disregarded, sent a rebuke through channels. But when he learned the full story he sent his compliments to Collins and Harmon.

The battle had turned out to be one of "Lightning Joe's" best blitzes.

Point Count System Is Usually Accurate

Lesson Hand on Bidding

South	West	North	East
1 ♦	Pass	2 N. T.	Pass
6 N. T.	Pass	Pass	Pass

Opening—♥ J 13

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY
America's Card Authority
Written for NEA Service

A great many players throughout the nation have taken up the point-count system of bidding. The experts have adopted it for some time for no trump bidding. The occasional player has found it fairly accurate mathematically. It gives them a simple way to bid, so from time to time I am going to give you some lessons on this system of bidding.

I am using the point count system that I wrote up some 20 years ago—4 for ace, 3 for king, 2 for queen and 1 for jack. The expert wants 16 to 18 points for a no trump bid. With 19 to 20 points you should bid a suit. If your partner makes a one-over-one bid, you should then jump to two no trump.

In today's hand South is not strong enough for a two no trump bid, but is too strong for one no trump. Therefore, he should bid one diamond. The jump to two no trump by North shows a count of 13 to 15 points. South has 20 points. The combined hands have a minimum of 33 points which is enough to bid a small slam.

The opening lead of the jack of hearts is won in dummy with the queen. Take the spade finesse immediately rather than the diamond finesse, because if this fails, West may shift to a spade and put you on a guess. If the spade finesse fails, you can still hope that the hearts may break 3-3 or that the diamond finesse will be good.

With the spade finesse working you have 12 tricks.

Recommends 'Fatties' And Teachers as Mates

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 13 (AP)—Fat men make the best husbands, and school teachers the best wives.

That's the word from the director of the National Institute for Human Relations.

Dr. James F. Bender of New York city declared at the closing summer session convocation of Buffalo State Teachers College yesterday:

The fat man is the least likely to want a divorce, he is a tender and faithful lover and he is more easily persuaded to wash the dishes and get up at night to look at the baby.

Bender, who thinks he's the "roly-poly type" himself, had this to say to maritally inclined gentlemen:

"School teachers love children and they make good mothers * * * Teachers are well adjusted personalities as a rule and are less inclined to be neurotic than the average American woman."

Furthermore, he said when a woman has been giving classroom lectures all day long, she returns home at night too tired to talk, this is "sheer heaven" to most married males.

Five Women Are Arrested in Raid On Numbers Ring

New York, Aug. 13 (AP)—Five women were arrested in a raid on a Bronx apartment late last night, and accused of working with a $6,000-a-day numbers betting ring.

Police seized files in the apartment containing 1,260,800 policy slips.

The women, police said, claimed they were clerical employes—paid $50 apiece weekly—by a man whom they knew only as "Willie."

They were quoted as saying that "Willie" would arrange to meet them at various places each day and gave them numbers slips to be tabulated.

They were arrested at the apartment of Mrs. Mary Lima, 46, of 165 East 179th street.

The others were identified as Miss Ivy Abrahams, 37, and Mrs. Eileen Simonsen, 22, both of 610 West 160th street; Mrs. Mary Pico, 25, of 2115 46th Road, Long Island City, Queens; and Mrs. Sylvia Greene, 34, of 101 West 112th street.

Police said the ring's winning numbers were based on betting at the Saratoga, N. Y., racetrack—the last digits of the amounts bet on the third, fifth and seventh races being used to form the winning number.

The apartment in which the women worked had two adding machines for tabulation purposes, police said. It also was equipped with an air-conditioning system. This, the women told police, was provided by "Willie."

Barkley Gets Bell, Not for Wedding

Altoona, Pa., Aug. 13 (AP)—Vice President Alben W. Barkley doesn't mind joking in public about reports he's about to wed Mrs. Carleton S. Hadley, St. Louis widow.

Last night at an Altoona centennial program Barkley was presented a miniature locomotive bell by C. I. Clugh, works manager of the Pennsylvania Railroad shops.

Barkley accepted it with a twinkle in his eyes:

"The newspapers have been filling my ears with rumors about bells in recent weeks but this bell has a real ring to it," he said.

Mrs. Hadley will join the vice president in Paducah, Ky., today when he dedicates an airfield to be known as Barkley Field.

In a more serious vein last night, Barkley told an audience of several thousand the leadership of the world "has been thrust into our hands so billions can raise their heads as free people. What we are trying to preserve is priceless," he declared.

Storm Ends Forest Fire Hazard in Bay State

Boston, Aug. 13 (AP)—A storm of cloudburst intensity in western Massachusetts and scattered showers in other sections snuffed a forest fire hazard in the Bay State today.

Forestry officials said the rainfall was a big help in lessening the fire danger. It also brought some relief to farmers whose lands are parched by a long drouth.

The sudden blow in the western part of the state, east of the Connecticut river, caused the evacuation of families in Chicopee lowlands.

It doused wide sections of Holyoke, Ludlow and Springfield as well as Chicopee.

The south and north ends of Springfield were in danger of being inundated before the storm ended.

DESIGNING WOMAN—Parisian designer Shaa Davis models the swim suit that took first prize in a recent French-American Designers Guild fashion show at New London, Conn. The suit is a modified version of the famed "Bikini" model.

Collins to Succeed Bradley as Chief

Washington, Aug. 13—Gen. Joseph Lawton Collins, whose fighting 7th corps outslugged the Nazis halfway across Europe, has been selected to succeed Gen. Omar N. Bradley as army chief of staff.

He was named to the post yesterday by President Truman.

Mr. Truman Thursday nominated Bradley to the newly-created position of chairman of the joint chiefs of staff—the nation's highest military office.

Both selections are subject to Senate approval.

The army also got a new top man for its European command. Secretary of Defense Johnson yesterday named Gen. Thomas T. Handy to take over the post held until recently by Gen. Lucius D. Clay.

Handy, 57, a veteran of both World Wars, has been serving as head of the Fourth Army in San Antonio, Texas.

It was understood that Collins, present vice chief of staff, was Bradley's personal choice for his successor as chief of staff.

Militaristic Revival Seen By Novelist

New York, Aug. 13 (AP)—A danger of the revival of militaristic nationalism in Germany is seen by Dr. Thomas Mann, just back from a three-month trip to Europe.

The Nobel prize-winning novelist said on his arrival here by ship yesterday that most Germans are complaining that they were better off under the Nazi regime.

He said "one of the most alarming symptoms" is the way the de-Nazification program has been handled by the Western democracies, including the United States.

"It seems to me," Mann said, "that the honestly democratic forces that obviously exist—but in a dangerous minority—should be better supported by the western democracies in their struggle against nationalism and militarism in every way."

The trip was the 74-year-old author's first visit to his German homeland since he was exiled by Hitler in 1933.

Shortly before Mann left for Europe last May 10, he said he believed Russia sincerely wants peace and understanding with America.

An oak tree may pass off more than 200 times its own weight in water from June to October.

Some Senators Are Still Pressing for General's Return

Washington, Aug. 13 (AP)—Some senators still pressed today for Gen. Douglas MacArthur's return from Japan despite his plea that critical events in the Far East will not permit it at this time.

Republican Floor Leader Wherry of Nebraska said MacArthur should return and tell Congress what policies should be followed in the Orient.

Senator Morse (R.-Ore.) added: "One of the greatest lessons in the democratic process that Gen. MacArthur could give would be to return and give senators information they need if they are to represent the people of the country intelligently in connection with the number one issue today—the common defense."

Wherry and Morse gave their views to reporters in separate interviews.

MacArthur firmly rejected an invitation yesterday by the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services Committees to testify on the President's $1,450,000,000 arms program.

He refused a similar invitation a year ago from the Senate Appropriations Committee.

Senator Connally (D.-Tex.), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, told the Senate yesterday it would be "shameful" for the Senate to demand MacArthur's return.

Connally fought against a resolution sponsored by Senator Knowland (R.-Calif.) asking MacArthur and Vice Admiral Oscar C. Badger, naval commander in the Far East, to report to the joint Senate committees. But the Texas senator was on the short side of a 13-12 vote by the committees.

No one expects President Truman to order MacArthur home. The President has said he will call him home if MacArthur asks to return.

Lye Thrower Held

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 13 (AP)—A flying beer can loaded with lye injured Marshall Miles, former business manager for Joe Louis, and four other persons at the Atlantic City race track yesterday. Detective Sgt. Lewis Vormann of the state police said most of the lye blew back on the man who threw it, identified as Earl Griffin, 34, Negro, of 85 Valentine Lane, Yonkers, N. Y. Police said Griffin was aiming at his wife, Mrs. L. Panya Griffin, 28, told police she had been separated from her husband. Vormann said Griffin would be charged with atrocious assault and battery and carrying a concealed deadly weapon. Mrs. Griffin and Miles were released in $250 bail each as material witnesses.

Confers With MacArthur

Tokyo, Aug. 13 (AP)—Wu Tehchen, close adviser to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek of China, held a two-hour conference with General MacArthur today. Neither Chinese nor Headquarters officials would discuss the subject of the conference. Wu on his arrival from Formosa last night insisted his visit was "unofficial." He said it had nothing to do with the proposed anti-Communist union in the Pacific.

William Bruce Dies

Milwaukee, Aug. 13 (AP)—William G. Bruce, an active publisher and civic leader for most of his 93 years, died early today after several months illness. He operated as president of the Bruce Publishing Co., which he founded in 1891, until shortly before his illness.

LUSTRON GOING INTO THE RED

Senator Flanders of Vermont told a reporter recently that "if Lustron fails, let us forever quit talking about mass-produced houses."

He was referring to the Lustron Corporation of Columbus, Ohio, the government-financed venture into production of factory-built homes. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation already has poured $34,000,000 into the company. This has not been enough, however, to launch the effort successfully.

Lustron currently is losing $500,000 a month. It is starting to cut back output from its present 27 houses a day when it needs to step it up to 35 or 40 to break even. In the next two or three months the R.F.C. must decide whether to advance further funds to Lustron in the hope that keeping it going a little while longer may put it over the hump.

This is a matter of considerable importance to the country. For years many critics of the housing industry have argued that the only way out of the low-cost house problem is mass production on the automobile pattern.

Lustron's steel house with the enamel finish represents the most striking attempt to put houses on a factory basis. Considerable engineering and architectural skill seem to have been applied in its design. Its plant has been tooled for big-scale operations. Lustron claims, for example, that it could produce 100 houses a day if it had three shifts of men working.

Yet the company has been mired in trouble from the start. It encountered the same high costs that plagued many another enterprise, so that it is now selling its houses for $10,000 to $11,000 instead of the $7,000 originally planned.

It couldn't find sufficient labor fast enough, and when it did get its men, it had to train them for entirely new jobs in a new industry. Worse, its dealers couldn't get adequate credit. They had to pay $6,000 to obtain a Lustron house from the factory. That runs into big money quickly.

Loans to finance dealers until sales are made have been slow in coming. Also dealers have their own labor problems with erection crews who are handling an unfamiliar product. They face often serious handicaps in local building codes or varying regional conditions.

The credit and the labor problems possibly can be licked in time. But meanwhile Lustron is going deeper into the red every day.

PARIS FASHIONS

If there was any doubt that Paris has lost its place as the world leader in the creation of clothing fashions for women, the August showings of new Paris fashions ought to dispel it.

Last year's Paris creations were notable for two things: The impractical circumference of their hobble skirts and the daring of their necklines. Those creations remained largely newsreel oddities. This year, say the dispatches from Paris, the skirts have become so narrow that a woman who wants to walk anywhere dons not a skirt but a pair of trousers which is contrived to look like a skirt when the wearer stands still. And the term "daring", it appears, is not quite adequate in description of the new necklines.

WORKING IN GERMANY

Many of today's working girls are seeing Europe differently than did their mothers and aunts who crossed the ocean in the interests of culture and clothes.

Government employes are signed for two-year terms, and handle work as librarians, hostesses, teachers, secretaries and statistical analysts. Salaries are commensurate with those paid for the same work at home, and living quarters are furnished. Food in the government mess is uninspiring, and the attitude of the German people is not always helpful. With the passage of time, however, and the application of patience and good humor, the American girls become acclimated to life in an occupied country, and the undoubted usefulness of their work is a great morale builder.

There are few more eye-opening experiences than this kind of a European sojourn. These girls will never again take for granted life's luxuries in America, nor look with indifference upon European problems. They will have spent fruitful years, across the Atlantic.

'These Days'

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

THE HULL TREATIES

For years and years the American people have been sold by their government a package labelled the Hull treaties. The idea is that a series of reciprocal trade agreements are entered into by the United States and a number of countries and that by the use of this mechanism, goods will move from one country to another. Cordell Hull's original idea was to produce as close an approach to free trade as was politically feasible.

So we went along with this concept, letting all sorts of European goods into the United States, occasionally, as in the matter of Swiss watches, to the disadvantage of the American manufacturer. But now come the British who not only place an embargo on American goods in the British Isles, but throughout the British empire, including our neighbors. Of course, that destroys the entire structure of the reciprocal trade agreements. Great Britain has adopted what Felix Morley has called "compulsory isolationism." That is they seek to isolate the United States.

Also, the British have been negotiating trade agreements, based on barter, with the object of eliminating the United States from those markets. For instance, the Anglo-Argentine trade agreement is a five year trade and payments arrangement based on barter and eliminating the dollars as the means of exchange. The Marshall Plan was designed to move American commodities, including meat, into England, but the British by-pass us to the tune of 125,000,000 pounds of sterling each year for five years, if they can, exchanging British manufactured goods for Argentine meat on a barter basis.

Actually, the British agree to take 85 per cent or more of Argentine's export of prime beef, mutton, lamb and offals and at least 50 per cent of such meat, as is suitable for canning or manufacturing. This gives an idea of the size of this transaction—and, of course, the Argentine will buy where it sells. In fact, the agreement says that Great Britain is to supply the Argentine:

". . . Coal, (8.5 million pounds sterling), iron and steel and their manufacturers (7 million pounds sterling), transport equipment (25 million pounds sterling), machinery, including agricultural tractors (14 million pounds sterling), cotton piece goods (4.8 million pounds sterling), woolen and worsted yarns and manufactures (4 million pounds sterling), chemicals, dyes and colors (5.7 million pounds sterling), electrical goods (4.9 million pounds sterling), pottery, glass and abrasives (3.2 million pounds sterling), cutlery, hardware, etc., (2.35 million pounds sterling)."

How much of this goods to be bartered the British will first get from the United States under the Marshall Plan and then use to drive this country out of the Argentine does not appear in the agreement.

The Argentine also will provide: ". . . Maize (20 million pounds sterling), other grain (3 million pounds sterling), oil cakes and meal (10 million pounds sterling), edible oils (9 million pounds sterling), edible fats (4.2 million pounds sterling), linseed oil (10 million pounds sterling), hides and skins (11.6 million pounds sterling)."

American sellers are being pushed out of both countries by this Agreement. While in the United States, we are off on a tangent about Peron, the British put over a deal with Peron to our detriment—and then they ask us for more Marshall Plan money, for aid to arm themselves, the detailed information on the atom bomb and much more, I am sure, than has yet seen the light of day. Socialists are wonderful askers.

I want to quote these two paragraphs from the official British statement on the subject:

"In the first year of the Agreement the United Kingdom also undertakes to lend all necessary assistance within their powers to ensure the supply to Argentine of 1,800,000 tons of crude oil, 3,750,000 tons of fuel oil and 250,000 tons of oil products, subject to agreement on terms and conditions negotiated between the sellers and the importers. The oil will be supplied by the United Kingdom oil companies and their associated companies to the existing importers in Argentina at current prices.

"The Argentine government have not been asked to give any undertaking that they will purchase oil to these amounts. It is open to Argentina to purchase oil from other sources, if so desired."

Very kind of them, indeed. And where will Great Britain get this oil—in Sherwood Forest?

That Body of Yours

BACKACHES

I often write about backache, low back pain, and sciatica (the pain running down back of leg from hip to heel). Physicians, surgeons, osteopaths, chiropractors, masseurs, all tell a similar story about the great increase in backaches.

While most physicians think of backaches as caused by injury or infection, we must not think of injury as always being a fall, too heavy a lift, or a misstep. Injury can be caused by poor bed springs, by a slouchy or tired attitude, or from doing a medium-heavy to heavy task perhaps a hundred or more times a day.

In "Hygeia," the health magazine, published by the American Medical Association, Robert D. Potter states, "If you sleep in a bed of poor construction, so its springs sag in the middle from head to foot, the spine may be permanently curved during sleep causing your backache." The cure for a sagging in bed is to put a board on the slats beneath the spring that keeps the mattress level on top of the springs.

While we expect to find backaches among those who are bending at their work, and then lifting more or less heavy objects, we are learning that men and women who have to stand at their work—salesmen, policemen and others—also have backaches. Others who acquire backaches are stenographers and typists, due to not using back supported adjustable chairs.

If we were to have our dentist sit down while he looked after our teeth we would be surprised. I only saw one and he perched himself on a high adjustable chair, to do some special work on the lower and upper jaw bones. Dentists have been standing all day since the early days of dentistry but something is finally being done for their poor aching backs and feet. The Dental School of Northwestern University recently announced that its oncoming generations of dentists would be taught to work sitting down. Nearly 90 per cent of their work, a survey disclosed, can be done as well or even better, when they sit on a high stool.

Remember, most backaches, low back pain and sciatica are caused by infection (teeth, tonsils, gums, or large intestine), with the pain worse when resting. Backache due to injury pain is worse on standing. A snug abdominal belt helps if poor posture or a protruding abdomen is causing backache.

How to Win Friends and Influence People

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By ROBERT S. ALLEN

Washington—This is a long-deserved public tribute to a man of great courage and great humanity.

He is Paul Strachan, tall, deaf, and impassioned father of National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week.

Strachan conceived this unique humanitarian institution while flat on his back in Johns Hopkins Hospital in September 1940. It took him five years of unremitting effort to win Congressional approval. Now firmly established and warmly supported by leaders of government, industry and labor, N.E.P.H.W. has made it possible for more than 500,000 handicapped men and women to obtain gainful work and the inexpressible satisfaction of being self-sustaining members of society.

In a few weeks, the 1949 N.E.P.H.W. drive will be launched at a Washington meeting that will be addressed by President Truman. He has sincerely backed N.E.P.H.W. from its start. Last year, both the President and then-Secretary of State George Marshall took part in opening the drive.

New Dream

Strachan will be in the forefront of this year's campaign as he was in all the others. Discussing the conception of N.E.P.H.W. he says:

"It was born of recollections of World War I, when disabled veterans were pushed around and ignored as soon as the parades stopped and the bands no longer played. It was born of vivid and poignant recollections of thousands of other handicapped I had seen who were the discards of society. It was born of personal experience, as one 85 per cent physically disabled, and who, because of that disability, was cast upon the human scrap pile, despite a fierce and intense desire to live, to work, and to achieve."

But while laboring devotedly for N.E.P.H.W., Strachan is passionately battling for a new dream.

It is a plan for a great national program of rehabilitation, training and aid for physically handicapped of all kinds. The project would completely revolutionize the handling of this problem in the U. S. More than two-score senators and congressmen are sponsoring the bill drafted by Strachan.

Rep. Gus Kelley, D., Pa., senior member of the House Labor Committee, has already held hearings on the measure. But despite strong support in and out of Congress, the proposal is a long way from enactment. It is encountering vigorous bureaucratic resistance.

But that is not daunting Strachan. All his life he has had to fight for his ideals. It took him five years to make N.E.P.H.W. a reality, and he is prepared to battle the remainder of his days for his new dream.

"It will be worth it," he said. "We can't lose. Even if this program is not adopted in its entirety to start with, it will force advances that would otherwise not be achieved. Time and the cause of humanity are on our side."

Fighting Scot

Strachan inherited his unquenchable spirit from a Scottish father.

His father was a crusading country editor in Michigan, Indiana and Georgia. He battled against political machines and for the underdog without fear or favor. On one occasion, his press was smashed by a mob. The elder Strachan borrowed equipment from a nearby town and issued his paper with a scathing attack on the mob.

Paul Strachan was born in Perry, Mich., in February, 1892. At the age of 14, he had become an expert typist and, quitting school, took a roving job as an "expert demonstrator." In the years that followed, he visited many lands and engaged in many occupations.

He prospected for gold with two sourdoughs in Alaska; was a steamship agent in the Orient; worked at various jobs in the Mediterranean, Australia, England and South America; and produced several movies in the U. S. As Strachan puts it, "There were few places I didn't get to and little that I didn't do."

One of the things he did was to become a boon companion of Jack London, famed novelist. They went on several trips together.

In World War I, because of physical disability, Strachan was barred from military service. So he helped set up the Bureau of War Risk Insurance and was one of its first officials. Later, as a result of this work, he was active in organizing a union of government employes. This in turn led to interest in vocational training and he authored and put through Congress the Federal Vocational Training Act.

An auto accident severely disabled Strachan and sent him to Johns Hopkins Hospital where he conceived National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week. In 1942, to wage the long fight for congressional enactment of this project, he organized the American Federation of the Physically Handicapped.

Strachan still heads this organization, which has local chapters throughout the country. AFPH is sponsoring his new program and from a modest office in the National Press Building he is determinedly masterminding the campaign.

His right-hand assistant is also a handicapped, Miss Mildred Scott doesn't thump desks or thunder as Strachan does, but she is as indefatigable and devoted to their cause. As one admiring AFPH official expressed it, "Paul storms the barricades and Mildred organizes the storming."

Paul Strachan and Mildred Scott are not headline names. But they are the kind of selfless idealists who have made America great and are its real heart and soul and strength.

It is the privilege of the Washington Merry-Go-Round to acclaim them and to bestow upon each the brass ring for devoted service to their fellow men.

No Reason for Awe

There is nothing backward about 36-year-old freshman representative John R. Walsh of Indiana, but he admits a little stage fright when he hustled down to the White House on business for his district.

"Reckon I may be a trifle scared, or maybe I should say awed," grinned the tall, curly-topped 'Hoosier after he shook hands with the President. "It isn't every day a fellow gets to talk to the President of the United States."

"I know how you feel," Truman smiled, "felt the same when I used to come down here to see FDR and sat in the same seat you're in. But now that I'm here in this chair, I can't understand how anyone can feel that way about me."

Ripley's Believe It or Not!

EXPLANATION OF YESTERDAY'S CARTOON

The River of Perfume

Huong Giang of Hue, Annam, Indochina, is literally a River of Perfume. The French call it "La Riviere de Parfums" which is a true rendering of its Annamese name. Millions of tropical blossoms grow along the shores of this fragrant and gentle blue stream. The slightest breeze drops clouds of flowers into it, imparting the fragrance of verbena, jasmine and frangipani blooms to the river. The waters are so strongly impregnated with the scent, that it is bottled and used as perfume by the natives of Indochina.

ELLENVILLE NEWS

Ellenville, Aug. 13—Chief subject of conversation here these days concerns the hospital situation. Directors of the Veterans Memorial Hospital have already begun the long-planned work of building an extensive addition to the present building. Meanwhile the Wawarsing town board, which for some time has been considering a general town hospital, to be erected on an Ellenville site, is preparing to submit to the voters a referendum on the subject of such a move, as soon as it can be arranged, following architect's estimates of cost and other details.

At ceremonies held Sunday afternoon, on the hospital grounds, a good crowd turned out, despite the heat, to witness Mayor Henry L. Schipp break ground for the new wing and to listen to brief talks by him and Robert V. Stapleton, president of the board of directors.

Monday morning a steam shovel began the work of excavation, which appeared to be well toward completion when seen Thursday evening. Digging of a 30x14 foot cesspool was finished and the interior walls laid. The cellar for the large wing seemed to be nearly done except for removing the top of a "ledge" of shale rock which had been uncovered near the bottom of the cellar and which ran across the width of the excavation. The ledge is several feet in width and it was suggested Thursday that it would be necessary to blast it out.

Proponents of the proposed new town hospital, to the number of about 25, attended the August meeting of the town board Monday night and urged that the project be carried out and that the referendum be held "at the earliest possible date."

The Kerhonkson Lions Club and the V.F.W. Post, who have endorsed the proposition, were among those represented by delegations. Gilbert Potts of Kerhonkson was prominent among the speakers and he is reported to have challenged the recent statement of Mr. Stapleton that no assurance had been given that the Veterans Hospital would do nothing until a referendum had been held on the general town hospital proposition.

Mrs. Richard A. Porter and sons are spending 10 days at the home of her sister, Mrs. Vincent Beede, Keene Valley.

Thomas Ingham and family are enjoying a motor trip to Canada.

Martin Meritt, who has been at the Veterans Memorial Hospital for treatment of his leg, has returned home.

Anthony Habermahr of Rutherford, N. J., has been visiting this week with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence D. Craft and Mrs. Anna Stangel.

Dr. and Mrs. Forrest E. Macauley of Melrose, Mass., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hoornbeek.

Eli Krom has returned to his duties at the Napanoch Institution after a month's vacation at his camp at Beaver Dam.

M. B. Reiter of 24 North Main street lost some 1,200 or more pullets and capons when fire destroyed his large two-story chicken house about 2:14 a. m. Thursday. In addition, a truck was badly damaged and another slightly damaged. The fire was discovered when the Reiter's young daughter was awakened by the crackling of the flames and it was found that the building was on fire throughout. Ben Litchrod, assistant chief, said that building and contents were a total loss. Cause of the fire was not ascertained. Mrs. Reiter said that there was insurance coverage, but the loss in business at this season is a severe one.

Earl B. Porter, 57, for 30 years employed by the Ellenville Electric Co., as a director of meter installation, died August 5 at the Veterans Memorial Hospital from cerebral hemorrhage, following a stroke on July 18. Mr. Porter was born in Mountain Dale November 19, 1891, son of Charles and Anna A. Kniffin Porter. He was married November 22, 1911, to Lena A. Baxter, who survives him. He also leaves four sisters, Irene and Ethel Porter of Mountain Dale, Mrs. William Mulroe of Woodside, L. I., and Mrs. Thomas O'Brien of New York; two brothers, Sturgis of Mountain Dale and Horace of Lackawack; nephews and nieces. Mr. Porter was a member of the official board of the Methodist Church and a life member and trustee of Pioneer Engine Co. He was well liked and had a wide circle of friends. The funeral Monday afternoon was largely attended, the Rev. J. Elmer Cates and the Rev. George R. Hiatt officiating. Bearers were Percy Krom and Bert Madden of Pioneer Engine Co., C. D. Raymond and R. A. Benson of the Electric Co., Earl Tice and William R. Rose for the Methodist Church. Some 300 persons called at the Pulling Funeral Home Saturday and Sunday to pay their respects.

There were few appearances before the town of Wawarsing board of assessors Tuesday, grievance day. New York made its routine protest over the assessment on watershed property. The city's assessment this year is $5,375,000, an increase of about $2,000,000 over last year. In all there were but six complaints against assessments. Members of the board are George Rippert, chairman; Harry Eckstein and Irving B. West.

The village board was informed Monday evening, at its August meeting, by Attorney Robert V. Stapleton, that Ethel and Lewis Benjamin of Ellenville had brought suit in Ulster county Supreme Court for $18,000. Mrs. Benjamin seeks $15,000 and her husband asks $3,000, for injuries allegedly sustained by Mrs. Benjamin in a fall near the intersection of Center and Market streets. Manuel Ditchenheimer is their attorney. Mr. Stapleton was authorized to take the necessary steps in defending the case. Mr. Stapleton also informed the board that Charles Bennett, who was discharged from the street department several weeks ago, is entitled to a hearing on the charges. He is under civil service and is a veteran of World War I. A hearing will be held August 23 at 8 p. m.

The refreshing rain of Thursday evening came just in time to save late corn, pole beans, tomatoes and other garden produce, which was on its "last legs" in some cases, following temperatures ranging up to 96 the past several days. Not so pleased, however, were those who had planned to listen to the seventh summer concert by Clayton's Military Band. A special feature listed was the appearance of Richard Milburn, tenor soloist from Middletown, who was heard here several summers ago.

The office of the village clerk will be closed Monday and Tuesday, August 15 and 16, while renovations are being made.

The "log" of the transcontinental auto trip made by the Rev. J. Elmer Cates and family shows that they made a total of 9,375 miles. They went to Vancouver, Wash., returning by way of California, crossing 20 states. Their high mark for a single day, including night travel, was 544 miles.

Ellenville softball players defeated the Liberty All Stars on the local diamond 5 to 1. The baseball team went to Shokan last Sunday afternoon and won their sixth victory of the year by a 9 to 3 score.

The marriage is announced, on August 4, of Eleanor R. Hoar, daughter of Mrs. Ruth E. Hoff, to Donald J. Coutant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Coutant of Ellenville. The ceremony was performed in the Emory Methodist Church at Ellicott City, Md.

Recent births at the Veterans Memorial Hospital include: Daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kaplan of Ellenville; daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Odell of Ellenville; daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sheeley of Ellenville; son to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wood of Ellenville; daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Van Wagner of Grahamsville. Also announced that a son was born August 9 at Coral Gables, Fla., to Mr. and Mrs. Murry C. Bernkrant, formerly of Ellenville.

The second adult driver training course of the Marshall-Jansen Co. will start August 15, with Edward Widmer, instructor.

Mrs. E. C. Hoemer and her guest, Mrs. Joseph Falk of Washington, D. C., left Wednesday for Fort Edward, where Mrs. Falk will visit relatives. Mrs. Hoemer returned home today.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kilduff and sons are visiting her sister, Mrs. John B. King, at Crystal Brook, L. I.

Mrs. Henry Horton has returned home after spending a week with her cousin, Mrs. Ora Russell Anthony, at Easton.

Mrs. John H. Divine is spending some time at the home of her friend, Mrs. J. D. Gulick, Speculator. She expects to return to Ellenville latter part of the month.

Attorney and Mrs. H. Westlake Coons, with Mrs. Alfred Otte and two daughters, have been spending a few days at Beaver Dam.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Bobb and daughters of Carlisle, Pa., have been visiting Ellenville and Cragsmoor friends this week.

Questions-Answers

Q—Why is tweed so called?

A—Tweed is a name which originated by error from tweel, a Scottish form of twill, but associated with the Tweed River.

* * *

Q—Did the prehistoric Indians have domesticated fowls?

A—The turkey seems to have been the only fowl domesticated by the prehistoric inhabitants of the United States. This bird in its domesticated state was restricted to the Southwest, where some of the Pueblo Indians kept large flocks of them.

* * *

Q—How did the name "cocktail" originate?

A—The cocktail is said to have originated during Revolutionary times when a woman patriot operated an inn near New York. She served a drink, the basis of which was whiskey, and which was popular with the British soldiers quartered nearby. The walls of her bar were decorated with the tails of roosters and a British officer dubbed her favorite drink a "Cock's Tail," after these decorations.

Twenty and Ten Years Ago

Aug. 13, 1929 — Democrats named Edward J. Colwell, Jr., of Allaben for Member of Assembly; Jacob V. Merrihew, Olive Bridge, sheriff; Robert Stoutenburg, Glenford, superintendant of poor, and Nicholas G. Russell, Ellenville, coroner.

The city Democratic ticket was: Eugene B. Carey, mayor; Harry Clearwater, alderman-at-large, and Bernard A. Culloton, city judge.

A severe electrical storm swept over the city and vicinity.

Aug. 13, 1939—David A. Rosen, 48, of Brooklyn, was fatally injured as a flat tire plunged his auto 150 feet down a bank along the Shawangunk Trail.

Henry Horton, character actor, died at Ellenville.

So They Say...

The Democratic Party and the states of the South have had a long and fruitful partnership. It would be a tragic thing if that partnership were to be destroyed.

—Vice President Barkley.

They (European countries) realize that they do not have, either individually or collectively, the forces which could prevent armed aggression from the East, and they look to us for necessary assistance.

—Secretary of the Army Kenneth C. Royall, revealing that several European countries have requested additional U. S. troops on the continent.

You know, women tall: a lot when they are choosing hats. I guess it's like men with their barbers.

Visit the Freedom Train

No state in the Union can claim a prouder heritage of freedom than New York. Today, perhaps more than ever before, it is important that that heritage be passed on to the next generation unimpaired. The Kingston Daily Freeman is happy to cooperate with the New York State Freedom Train Commission in bringing to Kingston on August 16 and 17 the great documents of our state and national history.

Home Laundry May Replace Dining Room

In the average small house, a dining room or breakfast room is usually an extravagance in space, according to architectural authorities.

The kitchen can be laid out to include breakfast eating space with little or not extra cost, and the living room plan can be arranged to supply dining space, either in one end or in a special bay that will be one of the features of the house, both from the inside and the outside.

Space and money expended on a separate dining room or breakfast room in the typical small house are much better utilized for a convenient, fully equipped modern home laundry, planning experts declare.

First-floor space is preferred, adjoining the kitchen, but if this arrangement is not feasible the household laundry can be set up in the basement — can even be included as part of the heater room for further economy.

Plastic Wall Plate

With a new plastic wall plate now on the market, there will be no more groping around in the dark for that elusive light switch. A tiny electronic bulb, built into the top of the plate, makes it easy to find.

Cartoons Decorate Recreation Room

A 30 by 30 foot basement has recently been converted into an engaging recreation room by its owner who drew on Disney cartoons for inspiration. The concrete floor, first neutralized for alkalinity, was painted a yellowish tan for an effect of sunniness. On the white walls the cartoon murals of Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs were drawn free-hand with pencil, then colored and protected by a fixative.

A game chest and game tables were made by the owner, as well as the dart board, table and bench; movable blackboard and lamps. Particularly ingenious is the movable refreshment counter which fits over the laundry tubs and washing machine. A hinged top allows for dish washing.

Paint, When Stored, Should Be Covered

Paint can be kept indefinitely if it is protected from the air. A partly filled can of paint will deteriorate, however, no matter how tightly closed it may be. To preserve the remaining paint, it should be poured into a smaller glass jar and the top screwed down tightly.

Drain Needed at Bottom Of Exterior Stairways

At the foot of an outside cellar stairway or other steps leading down from the grade to house entrance there should be an area several inches deep and a drain to carry off water.

This drain is necessary for outside areaway entrances to basements, as water collecting at the foot of the stairs will flow under the door and cause a damp or flooded basement.

Built-in Cabinet Useful For Game Equipment

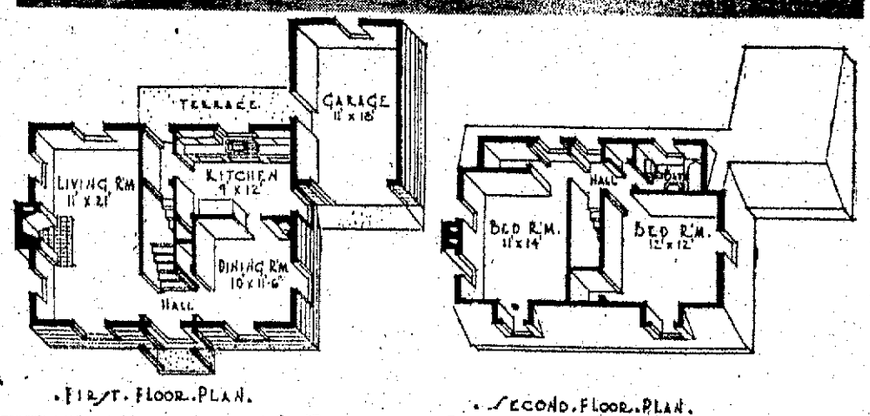

A built-in cabinet in which sports and game equipment can be stored contributes to orderliness in a home. An adequate games closet should have a number of shelves as well as a bin or hamper. In these can be stored seasonal sports equipment, such as ice skates, tennis racquets, golf paraphernalia, backgammin boards, and other articles associated with sport.

Concealed Door Checks

Awkward and unsightly overhead door checks need no longer be accepted as a necessary evil. Door checks, which close doors gently and quietly, are now available and can be installed in the floor, practically out of sight.

The EDGEWOOD

Care Needed in Equipping Home

The average individual selecting mechanical equipment for modernization of a home or for installation in a new home is faced with a great variation as to type, make, and advertised advantages.

Because of this, it is all too easy to lose sight of the fundamental purposes of the equipment, with a resulting selection poorly suited to the house, the pocketbook, and comfort and convenience requirements. Under FHA's Property Improvement Credit Plan a way is provided for the financing by lending institutions of home installations.

Reliability Is Important

Mechanical differences are often of minor importance in comparison with the reliability of the local firm selling and installing the selected items of equipment.

The home should be equipped mechanically up to the standard set by other homes of like quality, age, and size in the neighborhood, in order to maintain the value of the whole property. However, equipment added over and above this standard may appear desirable to the immediate user, but in case of resale, over-equipment may tend to lower rather than raise the valuation due to variation in human desires and obsolescence in equipment.

Need Efficiency In Heating Plant

Written Guarantee From Contractor Advisable in Choosing System

In the selection of an efficient heating system, there are several factors which not only affect the selection of the heating system itself but control, to a varying degree, the design of the house as a whole.

The type of system selected will depend upon: (1) Adequate capacity in relation to the severity of the climate, (2) the form of the house and its effect upon the heat-distribution system, (3) plan layout affecting the location of the equipment, (4) the quality of the construction of the house, (5) the degree of convenience and comfort demanded, and (6) the fuel to be used.

When selecting a heating plant, it is advisable to get a written guarantee from the contractor to the effect that the equipment has a heating capacity sufficient to heat all habitable rooms to 70 degrees Fahrenheit when it is zero out of doors. In localities where the temperature commonly falls below zero, a lower base, such as minus 10 degrees or minus 20 degrees Fahrenheit may be used to get adequate capacity.

Lighting Fixtures Returning to Style

Lighting fixtures which in recent years have been crowded out of the domestic pictures by portable lamps are coming back in style, according to those in the electrical industry who ought to know. That doesn't mean a return of the old monstrosities that were banished, but new styles that suit today's taste in home decoration.

And very welcome these should be for fixtures are needed for really balanced lighting — especially now with so many new tricks in indirect and fluorescent light.

Portable lamps will remain as an important part of home illumination, but they are most effective when coordinated with fixtures.

Home Combines Two Early American Styles

Salt-Box Ell Is Added to Cottage to Give Quaint, Unusual Design That Is Extremely Practical

Features of two familiar Early American styles are happily combined in the five-room cottage plan introduced today by the Home of the Week Plan Service.

By adding a salt-box ell to a Cape Cod cottage, the designer has produced a home which is not only quaint and highly pleasing to the eye, but also extremely practical. The ell serves as a one-car garage.

The house is small, but well laid out, and includes all the conveniences the builder of moderate means can reasonably expect.

Some objection may be raised to the loss of floor space on the second floor, resulting from the sloping roof, but this loss has been partially offset by utilizing space under the eaves for built-in cupboards and chests of drawers.

The outside dimensions of the house, which is called "The Edgewood," are 22x28 feet. The garage ell will add 10 feet to the width. The cubic content, including the garage is 15,000 feet.

Like most of the other plans in this series, the blueprints of the Edgewood give the builder a certain amount of leeway; changes can be made to meet his individual tastes and needs.

For example, in the photograph of the house, which accompanies this article, it will be noted that the arrangement of the side windows varies slightly from that shown in the plan. With this layout, the sink would be installed under the small window, instead of being placed against the rear wall, as the plans indicates.

In the living room, if the builder desires, a door can be cut through into the rear service hall. This would improve circulation through the house and possibly save the housewife many steps in the course of a day.

A storm-shelter at the front entrance of the cottage is provided by a copper-hooded framework, adorned at either side by vine-covered trellises. A glass door and storm windows, that fasten directly to the framework make the entry snug in winter. Thus, throughout the year, the entry serves a practical use. Flanked by a low, white picket fence, the covered stoop also adds quaintness to the cottage's appearance.

From the small entrance hall a straight, inclosed stairway rises to the second story. Beside the stairs there is a coat closet. At either side of the hall, arches or cased openings give access to living room and dining room.

The living room has a floor area of 11x21 feet. Centered in the long outside wall is a fireplace with simple stock mantel, Colonial in character. Four windows give excellent cross lighting and ventilation, leaving one long unbroken wall space for large furniture pieces.

Across the hall, the dining room, 10x11.8 feet in floor measurements, has a built-in corner china cupboard.

Attractive View From Kitchen

The kitchen is 9x12 feet in floor measurements. Working counter, sink and wall cabinets occupy one entire wall. A window above the sink looks out on a terrace or porch at the rear of the house. Screened-in, this terrace or porch would make a pleasant, secluded spot for summer-time breakfasts and suppers.

In the kitchen, which has a linoleum covered floor and linoleum surfaced working counter, the refrigerator is placed at one side of the doorway to the dining room, the range on the other side of the doorway, receiving side light from an adjacent window. A door from the kitchen opens on the service hall, from which stairs lead to the basement.

On the second floor are two bedrooms and a bathroom, all opening off a small hall area at the top of the stairway. The larger bedroom, measuring 11x14 feet, has three windows and a large clothes closet. The second bedroom measures 12x12 feet. It has two windows, giving cross ventilation, and a closet of ample proportions.

Both bedrooms, as already mentioned, have built-in drawers and cupboards utilizing under-eaves space. Each room also is planned with wall space that permit an occasional rearrangement of furniture.

Complete plans and specifications for this "Home of the Week," or any other design of this series, are available at moderate cost. To ascertain the exact price of these documents, write to the Home Building Editor, The Kingston Daily Freeman, and enclose a self-addressed envelope bearing a 3-cent stamp. At least one week should be allowed for a reply.

Planning Saves Painting Costs

Careful Preparation of Woodwork Another Prime Essential

Waste of time, labor, and materials may be avoided by home owners in planning their fall painting through observance of a few simple rules.

Approximation of the surface to be covered and the color desired is the first thing required after deciding to paint a room or some exterior or interior woodwork.

If the woodwork is new and it is an interior job, the surface should be cut smooth with sandpaper and dusted clean. Then the priming coat should be applied. If it is old woodwork and shows bad cracking, checking, or scaling, the surface should be stripped with a good paint and varnish remover and cleaned with benzine or turpentine. If the wood is greasy or coated with wax, this should be scrubbed off with benzine or turpentine.

The next step is to putty up all nail holes, cracks and other defects. This is done after the priming coat has dried. Then a semi-finishing or second coat of paint is applied and allowed to dry thoroughly before the third or finishing coat is applied. If a gloss finish is wanted, the finishing coat is enamel. When the color is to be other than white, both finishing coats are tinted.

Dampness Traced to Window Frames

Damp spots frequently appear on the interior surfaces of walls, but, contrary to the impression of some home owners, only in relatively few cases are they caused by leakage through the walls.

Source of the trouble is usually found around window frames which are poorly built or improperly weatherproofed. These frames admit air and moisture, and the adjoining interior walls soon become unsightly with dirt and water stains.

Water, finding its way into the wall around the window frame, may work along inside the wall, and make a spot on the plaster surface several feet distant. Because of this, it is sometimes difficult to locate the source of trouble.

Home owners plagued by this annoyance should repair the windows and then cover the damage already done by a thorough repainting.

Oranges first were grown in California in 1873.

Painting the Porch

The best time to paint a porch floor is during warm weather after several dry days. The cracks between the boards are widest then, and they should be filled with a crack filler. No paint should be applied until the filler has dried.

Resume Stock Car Races at Rhinebeck

Stock car races will resume at the Rhinebeck Speedway tonight, with a program of 12 races scheduled.

A final inspection of the Dutchess County Fair Association grandstands took place yesterday and engineers and inspectors gave the bleacher and grandstand an okay for future racing

Six events were completed last Saturday before a portion of the main bleacher section collapsed. The four remaining races and a complete program of eight new races is scheduled.

Due to the extra long program, the first race will start at 8:15, instead of the usual 8:30. Rain checks of August 6 will be honored tonight.

Dynamite Rocks Homes Of Negro Clergymen

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 13 (AP)—Dynamite blasts rocked the homes of two Negro ministers early today in an area zoned for whites. A group of Negroes fired several shots at the dynamiters' auto, apparently without effect.

Eighteen Negroes in the two houses narrowly escaped death or injury.

Scores of Negroes in angry mood gathered in the area immediately and squads of police deployed to keep traffic moving.

One Negro was arrested. The arresting officer said he refused "to move on when ordered."

The Negro, Horace Moore, 32, was taken to the city jail, where he was booked on charges of resisting arrest and refusing to obey an officer.

Most of the windows in the houses were blown out. Neither sustained any major damage.

The houses are only a half block from three others that were heavily damaged by blasts the night of March 24. These other houses had been bought by Negroes for occupancy. They were vacant at the time.

Altamori's No-Hitter Tops Peewee League

Athletic Field Ace Shackles Sahler's

Tony Altamori of the Athletic Field pitched the first no-hit, no-run game in the K.A.A.'s Peewee League competition against Sahler's Park this week as his team romped to an easy 8-0 victory.

It was a near perfect game as Altamori did not issue a single pass and struck out 14 batters Jackie Dawkins and George Hart hit doubles for the winners. The Athletic Field collected six hits off Paul Giannuzzi.

The Athletic Field scored two other victories, whacking Hasbrouck Park 18 to 9 and Cornell Park, 9 to 2.

Reynolds Stars

Joe Reynolds unfurled a two-hitter in the win over Cornell and fanned eight. Jim Leonardo was the losing hurler. Jackie Dawkins continued his heavy hitting with a double and triple for the winners. B. Haber and Davis also poled doubles.

Altamori was back on the firing line as the Athletic Field routed Hasbrouck, scoring their 18 runs in the second, third and fourth innings. J. Mazzucca and J. Dawkins poled doubles and Hank Cragan, Jr., came up with a triple.

Ulster County Swimming Championships Scheduled Sunday at Williams Lake

The Williams Lake Athletic Club with the sanction of the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States will hold the annual Ulster county swimming championships on Sunday, August 14, over their 50-yard course at Rosendale. At stake are the Kingston Kiwanis trophy which goes to the girl winning the 50-yard free-style swim and the American Legion trophy to the man winning the 100-yard free-style race. Betty Raisner and Joe Heldcamp, last year's winners are expected to defend their titles. The program also features exhibition swimming and diving and comedy acts by the Newburgh Aquatic Club

Legion Trophy at Stake

The American Legion trophy, the older of the two, was presented by the Kingston Post No. 150, of the American Legion way back in 1936 in an effort to build up local interest in competitive swimming. It was first won by Urho Waines, of Binnewater. Last year Joe Heldcamp won the trophy for the fifth time having victories in 1941, 1942, 1946, 1947, as well as 1948. From 1942 until 1946 Joe was unable to defend his title due to service in World War 2. Should he successfully defend his title this year he will have the most consecutive legs on the trophy of any previous titleholder, an honor that he now shares with Walter Himmelberg, of Tillson, who was the champion in 1938, 39, and 40. Other winners have been John Vaughn, of Rosendale, in 1937; John Daly of Rosendale, in 1943; Wilmont Parker, of Rosendale in 1944, and Merle Thorpe, of Binnewater, in 1945.

The Kingston Kiwanis Club, sensing the need for a similar trophy for women, presented the Kiwanis trophy in 1940. This 50-yard free-style swim was first won by Lois Parry, of High Falls, who repeated her performance in 1941. Since then with the exception of one year the trophy has been in the Raisner family, of Rosendale Helen Raisner won the event in 1942 only to bow to her sister, Pat in 1943. Pat successfully defended her title in 1944 but her sister, Elizabeth took it in 1945. Pat was again the champion in 1946. The series of Raisner victories was broken in 1947 when Mary Ann Williams a dark horse from Kingston led the field to the finish line. Elizabeth came back again last year to win and will be defending her title again on Sunday.

Sahler's No. 1 and Hasbrouck Park Nines Win Three Games Each in KAA Juniors

White Paces Tam With 135 Strokes

Chicago, Aug. 13 (AP)—Buck White, a chunky, chuckling southerner who's been a pro for most of his 39 years, rode out in front today, gunning for the $10,000 first prize of the Tam O'Shanter world golf meet.

The straight-shooting Buck, who signs his name O'Neal White of Greenwood, Miss, shot a seven-under-par 65 yesterday for a half-way total of 135. He showed up a lot of youngsters, but he was only one stroke in front.

Right behind old Buck was Johnny Palmer of Badin, N. C, who used to fire warplane guns over Japan. He banged a 69. His starting 67 made his two day total 136.

The four at 137 were Clayton Heafner of Charlotte, N. C., 66-71; Henry Ransom, Chicago, 67-70; Jimmy Demaret, Ojai, Calif., 69-68; and Jim Turnesa, Briarcliff, N. Y., 68-69.

Next at 138 were Sam Snead, the year's No. 1 money grabber with 72-66; Ed Furgol, Royal Oaks, Mich., 68-70; and Bob Hamilton, Landover, Md, 72-66.

Game Postponed

The City Baseball League contest between Chez Emile and Morgan's Rest yesterday was postponed because of wet grounds. The twi schedule resumes Monday.

Visit the Freedom Train

No state in the Union can claim a prouder heritage of freedom than New York. Today, perhaps more than ever before, it is important that that heritage be passed on to the next generation unimpaired. The Kingston Daily Freeman is happy to cooperate with the New York State Freedom Train Commission in bringing to Kingston on August 16 and 17 the great documents of our state and national history.

Sahler's No. 1 swept to three straight victories in the Junior division of the K.A.A. baseball program this week, including a 19-3 rout over the Athletic Field, the first setback for the midtown nine this season.

Don Dempsey stopped Cornell, 21-8, on six hits and fanned four. John Borris, the loser, yielded 14, including a double by Bob Cullum and triple by Brower. Baum and Banes clouted triples for Cornell.

Jack Brown unfurled a two-hitter to rout the Athletic Field, the winners pounding out 11 hits.

The No. 1 squad then repulsed the No. 2 tossers in an intra-park feud, 10-3, behind Bob Cullum's two-hitter. Bob Hornbeck yielded only five safeties, but seven errors contributed heavily to the No 1 total.

Ken Lowe's Hasbrouck Juniors matched Sahler's No 1 with a trio of victories, thumping in order, Forsyth Park, 8-2; Sahler's No 2 by 12 to 1, and Cornell Park, 7 to 4

Scookie Amato was the winner via an eight-hitter over Cornell and was assisted by triples off the bat of Art Gill, H. Letus and C. Miller Don Gardiner was the loser and he fanned seven.

Frank Jankowski three-hitted Sahler's No. 2 into submission, as Bob Hornbeck yielded nine hits, including a double by Art Gill, Dick Beesmer's double and triple and a three bagger by Frank Leirey.

Jankowski repeated against Forsyth with a seven-hit performance. Mike Turek assisted with a pair of doubles. He pitched shutout ball after the first inning.

● Bagatelles:

When the unabridged, undiluted, uncensored story of the behind-the-scenes folderol surrounding the Colonials is told, it will make Gilbert and Sullivan's comic opera touches seem like a high school script. The miracle is that we have a ball club in Kingston today. It is an even greater miracle that the Colonial players have carried on in the face of front office bungling, indecision and empty promises. There is brutal logic in the old saw that you can't squeeze blood from a stone and the Colonial hierarchy must realize the irrefutable finality of that adage. When it came down to a take it or leave it showdown with $20,000 at stake, some of the most voluble torch wielders took off for the hills. They had better come rolling back down if they want organized ball to survive. Right now we say the odds are 100 to 1 against it. Are there any Jim Dandys around?

● Flotsam and Jetsam:

An Albanian writes that after reading our recent dispatch from the Fiji Islands, he had a dream that J Frederick K Ertel had volunteered to serve as chairman of the steering committee for the new 18-hole golf course and promised to pledge in the five figures Whatever became of the harping critics who said Don Newcombe couldn't take it in the clutches. That 6,000 turnout for the wrestling "exhibitions" at Poughkeepsie augurs well for the start of pro wrestling here on Tuesday, Sept 13 at the municipal auditorium Bill Johnston, Jr., the promoter, was in town Thursday and toured Twaalfskill with us. A "100" he still managed a birdie-4 on the No. 7 hole. Carl Preston says he'll take a whack at the Freeman's hole-in-one tourney on August 28 Lew Hymes and Judge John M. Cashin will be among the honored guests, each having a couple of aces to his credit.

● Colonial League Capers:

Maybe the cops should have been brought in . . . The Bristol Owls stole a dozen bases in three games against the Colonials. Zeke Bonura has resigned as manager of the Kingston, Ontario club in the Border League. His team was in last place, 31 games behind. Bill Swiacki, Stamford catcher, left the team on Aug. 1 for training with the New York football Giants. Marty Garlock, a Poughkeepsie Chief in 1948, is one of the ace hurlers with Omaha, Neb., in the Class A Western League. The Bridgeport Bees have released pitcher Claude Phillips and sent shortstop Ed Kababek to Watertown. Arky Arekalian, former Bridgeport outfielder, is now with Nashua of the New England League, a Brooklyn Dodger farm. Umpire George Syby is out of action for the remainder of the season due to an operation. Colonial hitters have accounted for only 13 homers. Stamford leads the park with 82. Other totals are Bridgeport 61, Bristol 46, Poughkeepsie 26 and Waterbury 50.

Foxey Kaman, of the jughandle curve, and Lefty Joe Tuttle, who boast a combined total of 60 years experience, are still going strong in the Poughkeepsie twi league Kaman admits to 35 and Joe has been around for 25 Larry Van Etten, a former Kingstonian, laid out the original Knollwood and Wykagyl links, two of the oldest and finest in America Lou Schafer is vacationing in Seneca Falls and will return any day now, all hopped up with basketball fever.

Umpire Bill Schwab should pass out cigars to the City League's protest board and members of Morgan's Restaurant for that replay of the Morgan-Chez Emile protested game. So far as Chez Emile is concerned, the action is strictly a gift There is nothing in the rule book that justifies a replay. The simple truth is that Schwab blocked an errant ground ball with his you-know-what and Morgan's scored a run to which they are clearly entitled to according to baseball rules.

The NBA version of a heavyweight title bout—Ezzard Charles vs Gus Lesnevich—was about as exciting as a trade of utility infielders between the White Sox and Browns Poor old Gus just made like a punching bag as long as he could take it. He decided he'd had enough after the seventh round The customers had reached the same decision a few rounds earlier.

Eagles Trounce Collegians, 34-0

Chicago, Aug 13 (AP)—Most of the All Star collegians, already signed with pro football clubs, rushed to training camps today to begin preparing for their play-for-pay careers.

It's a good thing many of them are in a hurry. Apparently, they have a lot to learn.

The most inept and bewildered All-Star group in the 16-year history of the football series was buried 38-0 by the Philadelphia Eagles last night

The National League champions, feeding 44 players into the scramble in an effort to keep down the score, couldn't help but roll up the most decisive edge since the games were inaugurated in 1934 Forty-eight All Stars were used out of a stockpile of 65.

A throng of 93,780 fans witnessed the massacre in Soldier Field.

In jamming over 17 points in the second quarter, seven in the third and 14 in the last five different Eagles went for touchdowns—Steve Van Buren, Russ Craft, Pete Pihos, Noble Doss, and Neil Armstrong, Cliff Patton added a 16-yard field goal.

The National League pennant race may be decided in President Ford Frick's office.

Frick will be asked to rule on a protest by Manager Burt Shotton of Brooklyn of the Dodgers' 5-3 defeat at the hands of the Boston Braves last night.

The loss, together with St. Louis' 8-2 triumph over Pittsburgh, dumped the Dodgers into second place, a half game back of the Cardinals.

Snider's "Triple"

Shotton based his protest over a decision in Duke Snider's eighth inning triple with one out.

The Brooklyn outfielder's drive, which according to Umpire Art Gore hit the three-foot screen atop the centerfield wall, bounded back on the playing field.

Gore first ruled it a homer, then reversed himself. Snider, running at full tilt, saw Gore signal a homer and slowed up as he came into third. He trotted home without a play being made on him.

The Braves, led by Manager Billy Southworth, stormed on the field, protesting the call. After a conference among the four umpires, Snider was sent back to third.

Gore said he thought balls hitting the screen below the railing were home runs. He said he later realized his error and waved Snider back to third. Under the ground rule such a ball is in play.

Shotton said Gore's original call slowed up Snider on the bases, and that he might have completed the circuit even with a play on him The score was 5-3 at the time. After going back to third Snider did not score, as the next two batters popped out.

The protest recalled a somewhat similar incident two years ago which resulted in the ordering of a replay by Frick of a Dodger-Cardinal game.

The rhubarb occurred on July 20, 1947, when Cardinal outfielder Ron Northey hit a drive similar to Snider's at Ebbets Field which was called a homer by umpire Beans Reardon. In contrast to the Braves, the Dodgers played the runner and Northey was tagged out at the plate. Reardon reversed himself and called Northey out The Dodgers won, 3-2.

Frick took cognizance of the fact that Northey slowed down when Reardon signalled the blow a homer and ordered the game replayed The Dodgers won the replay and went on to win the National League flag, five games to the good of the Cards.

Last night's defeat not only knocked the Brooks out of first place, but snapped their six-game streak. A pair of home runs by Jeff Heath and Tommy Holmes, each with one on, did the trick for the Braves.

Gerry Staley, Stan Musial and Joe Garagiola combined their talents to lift the Cards into first place. Staley stopped the Pittsburgh Pirates with six hits while Musial and Garagiola pounded three-run homers to give the Redbirds an 8-2 triumph.

Moscowitz, Hrabcsak Score 15th Wins

The Colonials are in Poughkeepsie tonight for a single game with the Chiefs and return to municipal stadium for a twi-night doubleheader Sunday, quite happy to get away from Stamford and a couple of 15-game winners who throttled them with only one run last night.

The Pioneers swept both games, 7 to 0, and 7 to 1.

Big Ed Hrabcsak, who is touted as the greatest prospect in the league, checked Kingston with two hits in the seven-inning opener, while veteran Emil Moscowitz breezed to his 15th win in the nightcap on the strength of a couple of homers off Frank Demeri.

Hrabcsak fanned eight and limited Kingston to a fourth inning single by Buddy Mahan and a sixth frame double by Al Thomaier, The Pioneers racked up five runs in the first two rounds as Telliff Tellefsen was the victim of another quick kayo.

Bush Homers

Carl Bush smashed his 13th homer and Andy Callahan drove in three runs with a pair of doubles and a single for the Pioneers.

Stamford scored four times with two outs in the sixth to shatter a great pitching duel between Frank Demeri and Moscowitz, The Colonials lone tally of the night came in the top of the sixth as the result of Pavone's two-base error on Danny Perlmutter and Ralph Matzer's single.

Demeri apparently had things under control when he retired the first two batters in the Stamford sixth on routine fly balls. Callahan then tied the score with a homer over the left field fence. In rapid order followed Kaproski's single, a two-bagger by Leone and an intentional pass to Faughnan to load the bases. The strategy backfired when Carlos Santiago lashed a low liner to center. Perlmutter was set to field it on the first hop when it took a queer hop and sailed over his head for a base clearing triple.

Moscowitz padded the Stamford total by blasting a three-run homer in the eighth. Thomaier, Matzer and Anstaett each had two hits.

The Colonials introduced a new first baseman, Jack Mahan, brother of Buddy Mahan, the right fielder.

Danny McKever or Francisco Sosire will start tonight's skirmish with the Chiefs.

Writer Improves

Atlanta, Aug. 13 (AP)—Shy, modest Margaret Mitchell fought against odds today with the same stout heart she gave Scarlett O'Hara, heroine of her "Gone With the Wind." The plucky little author of the world-famed Civil War novel was semi-conscious on her hospital bed but she was gaining in her battle against shattering injuries inflicted by a speeding car. Her husband, John R. Marsh, said last night: "I am greatly encouraged by her condition. She is definitely better, although still not fully conscious." The police charged the driver, Hugh Gravitt, 29, with speeding, driving on the wrong side of the street and being drunk. His bond was set at $5,450.

Rain Aids Fighters

McCall, Idaho, Aug. 13 (AP)—A heavy rain that lasted about an hour in some sectors aided fire fighters battling a timber fire in the Salmon river area of the Payette national forest last night. Officials emphasized, however, it would probably be sometime today before they could tell how much the rain helped. But crews dug in with more hope of corralling the 5,000 acre fire. Forest officials said the situation looked better than it had since the fire broke out. This was in contrast to the situation yesterday when strong winds spread the flames.

Receive 'KKK' Threat

Freeport, N. Y., Aug. 13 (AP)—A note signed "KKK" and telephone threats against a couple planning to sell their home to a Negro family were being investigated today by detectives. A major clue, they said, is the scribbled note. It had been attached to an arrow and fired into the house through a screen door Mr. and Mrs. Charles Faber, residents of this Long Island town for 30 years, said they had received two threatening telephone calls after they made plans to sell their home to a Negro family.

PROCLAMATION

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, BY THE GRACE OF GOD FREE AND INDEPENDENT,

To the Sheriff of the County of Ulster, Greetings:

Whereas a Term of the County Court of the County of Ulster is to be held at the Court House, in the City of Kingston, N. Y., on the 6th day of September 1949. You are hereby Commanded to summon the several persons who shall have been drawn in said County of Ulster pursuant to law to serve as Grand Jurors and Trial Jurors at said County Court, to appear thereat. You are Commanded to bring before the said Court all prisoners then being in the Jail of said County together with all process and proceedings in any way concerning them in your hands as such Sheriff. You are commanded to make Proclamation, in the manner prescribed by Section 232-a of the Code of Criminal Procedure, notifying all persons bound to appear at the said Court by recognizance or otherwise, to appear thereat and requiring all Justices of the Peace, Coroners, and other officers who have taken any recognizance for the appearance of any such person at such Court or who shall have taken any inquisition, or the examination of any prisoner or witness, to return such recognizances, inquisitions and examinations to the said Court at the opening thereof, on the first day of its sitting.

Witness, Hon John M. Cashin, County Judge of Ulster County, at the Court House in the City of Kingston, this fifth day of August, 1949.

LOUIS G. BRUHN
District Attorney

In pursuance to the above precept, I hereby make proclamation that a term of the County Court of Ulster County and Jail Delivery will be held at the Court House in Kingston, in and for the County of Ulster, on the 6th day of September at 2.00 o'clock in the afternoon of that day; and all persons who will prosecute against persons confined in the jail of said County are required to be then and there present, to proceed as may be just, and all persons bound to appear at the said court by recognizance or otherwise, are required to appear thereat; and all Justices of the Peace, Coroners or other officers who may have taken any recognizance for the appearance of any person at the said court, or who may have taken any inquisition, or the examination of any prisoner or witness, are required to return such recognizance inquisition and examination, to the said court, at the opening thereof and on the first day of the sitting thereof, and to be then and there present with their rolls and records, indictments and remembrances, to do those things which to their offices pertain.

Dated, City of Kingston, 5th Day of August, 1949.

GEORGE C. SMITH
Sheriff of Ulster County

July Milk Price Set At $3.94 for 47 Quarts

New York, Aug. 13 (AP)—Milk producers will get a uniform price of $3.94 per hundredweight (about 47 quarts) for deliveries made in July to pool-approved plants in the New York milkshed.

This was announced yesterday by Dr. C. J. Blanford, market administrator of the New York metropolitan milk marketing area.

The uniform price, he said, will be paid for milk testing the standard 3 5 butterfat

For each tenth of a pound of fat milk varied above or below the standard, the producer butterfat differential will be 5 8 cents.

The July price beats last June's uniform price of $3.61 per hundredweight, but falls below the $4 92 paid in July, 1948

Blanford said total production in the milkshed last month was 577,411,511 pounds the second highest for July since the New York marketing orders went into effect in September, 1938

The highest for July was in 1945 when production hit 614,168,048 pounds

Mother Is Suicide After Giving Children Poison

Greenwich, Conn., Aug 13 (AP)—Detective Captain James P Healey said today that investigation indicated Mrs. Mary Schimmel, 41, served poisoned soda pop and cocoa drinks to her three daughters and then took poison herself.

Eugene Schimmel, the father, found his daughter, Barbara, 11, dead on a couch in the living room on his return from work yesterday. His wife was in agony on a bed in an adjoining room She died a short time later Police tentatively listed the deaths as murder and suicide.

Healey said the other girls, Jeanne, 13, and Katherine, 5 escaped death because they didn't like the taste of the mixture.

Dr. C Stanley Knapp medical examiner, said it appeared that Barbara and her mother died of cyanide poisoning. An autopsy will be performed today

C.I.O. Is Victor

Albany, N. Y., Aug 13 (AP)—The Public Service Commission has warned transportation companies that 'the public should not be burdened' by rate increases because of continued operating losses The warning was issued by Commissioner Glen R Bedenkapp yesterday as the P S C. rejected the Rochester Transportation Corporation's proposal to eliminate weekly passes and reduced rate tokens The commission said it would grant temporary increases However, in an opinion, Bedenkapp said "The ultimate purpose of rate increases is to enable utilities to continue to render adequate service No utility can exist long or serve well, if starved. By the same token, that purpose is thwarted if continuously mounting operating expenses absorb all benefits to be anticipated from rate relief."

Boswell Is Injured As Auto Leaves Road

Charles Boswell, 24, of 39 Sycamore street, was hospitalized this morning for injuries received when the automobile he was driving ran off the highway at Marlborough at 3 a. m., state police at Highland reported.

Boswell was taken to Kingston Hospital, where his condition was reported as "fairly good" today. The extent of his injuries is not known.

With Boswell was riding his brother, Harry, 23, of the same address, who was treated at the hospital for contusions and abrasions, and Dennis Hanson, 19, of 53 Gill street, treated for a lacerated arm and contusions, state police said. Both were released from the hospital after treatment.

Boswell was driving north on Route 9W when in the village of Marlborough he lost control and the automobile ran off the side of the road, state police said.

Almost Around Globe

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 13 (AP)—A pretty British housewife neared the end of a globe-circling flight today after piloting her little plane from Labrador to Greenland in defiance of Canadian air regulations. Mrs. Richard Morrow-Tait, 26, made the 700-mile flight with her navigator yesterday. Only two more overwater hops—from Greenland to Iceland to Britain—stand in the way of fulfilling her dream of being the first woman to pilot a single-engined plane around the world.

Rosoff Concern Sues N. Y. for $1,794,213

New York, Aug. 13 (AP)—Samuel Rosoff, Ltd., contractors, have sued the city for $1,794,213 allegedly due for the construction of part of the Delaware aqueduct.

The suit came to light yesterday when the construction firm filed a request in Supreme Court for a separate trial of a counterclaim by the city for $25,000 for injuries allegedly sustained by a city workman on the project.

In its complaint, the Rosoff firm said that on February 21, 1939, it entered into a contract with the city for the construction of a part of the Rondout-West Branch tunnel of the Delaware aqueduct in the vicinity of Gardiner, Ulster county, N. Y.

It said it had "duly completed" the terms of the contract and the city subsequently certified that the value of work and materials amounted to $21,092,218. This amount was paid, according to the company's attorney, Jacob I. Goodstein.

However, the company alleged in its complaint the city failed to pay it $1,794,213 for additional material and labor.

The Rosoff firm said that when laying out the design for the work, the city, after extensive study, had said that "solid rock would be found in the line of the tunnel."

Instead, the company said, at one point it was found that "the line of the tunnel was not through solid rock but through soft and disintegrated rock which permitted enormous volumes of water to enter the excavation."

The city then changed the design of the tunnel, the complaint continued, and instructed the Rosoff company to install concrete bulkheads, do additional drilling, and other work. As a result, the firm said, this particular work took 13 months instead of an expected one month and cost an additional $1,679,094.

The suing company also said that it had utilized 683,000 pounds of steel in drilling at a cost of $73,000, for which the city had not reimbursed it.

The city in turn said that it had duly performed its part of the contract and asked that the complaint be dismissed.

Won't Hit Hard

Tokyo, Aug. 13 (AP)—The big American island base of Okinawa will not get the full fury of a typhoon whipped across the Western Pacific, U. S. Air Force weather observers said tonight. The forecast was for the island south of Japan to be hit by winds up to about 60 miles an hour on the outer edge of the storm. The blow was due about midnight. A previous forecast said the typhoon was headed directly for the big base which still is repairing damage of a typhoon which took 38 lives there July 23.

Local Death Record

Alex Siegel, of 167 Hasbrouck avenue, Kingston, died on Thursday at Hudson, N. Y., Memorial Hospital after a long illness. He leaves his widow, Mary Schuster Siegel; and two children by a former marriage, Mrs. Ruth Lerner and Jerome Siegel. Burial was in the Cedar Park Cemetery in Hudson on Friday at 2 p. m.

Frank Salvemine, 54, died early today at his residence on the South Ohioville road near New Paltz. An employe of DeLaval in Poughkeepsie, he was born in Italy and came to the United States about 35 years ago, having resided in New Paltz area for the past 24 years. He leaves his widow, Mary E. Roberts Salvemine; a daughter, Vicky; a son, Maurice; one sister, Mrs. Grace Fasciano of Highland; and a brother, Leonard, of Harrison, N. J. He was a member of St. Joseph's Church, New Paltz. Funeral services will be held on Tuesday, August 16, at 9:30 a. m. from the late residence and at 10 o'clock at St. Joseph's Church, New Paltz, where a Mass of requiem will be offered. Burial will be in St. Charles Cemetery in Gardiner.

The body of Pfc. Roy J. DeMicco which arrived in this country on the Carroll Victory on August 2, 1949, reached Kingston Friday aboard the 2:30 p. m. West Shore train and was escorted by Sgt. E. Heintz of the Brooklyn Army Base. It was met at the station by Alderman-at-large Charles J. Turck, acting mayor; members of the family, Auxiliary 53 of Sons of Union Veterans and Veterans of Foreign Wars. The body was taken in charge of the Kingston Veteran's Association and under police escort to the family home at 334 Broadway. The color guard was composed of Victor Osborn, Robert B. Zimer, Thomas Bohan and Donald G. Moore. Bearers were Sidney Lane, Frank Stopskie, James M. Krom, Edward Shaver, Anthony Alecca and Morgan Ryan.

The funeral of Mrs. Rose M. Fuscardo was held from her residence in East Kingston, Thursday, at 9:30 a. m., thence to St. Coleman's Church where a solemn Mass of requiem was offered by the Rev. Edmond V. Radford. The Rev. Austin V. Carey and the Rev. Raymond Hyland acted as deacon and sub-deacon. Responses to the Mass were sung by Miss Patricia Keefe assisted by Theodore Riccobono at the organ. At the offertory Miss Keefe sang "Pie Jesu" and at the conclusion "Panis Angelicus." Wednesday evening members of St. Liberata, St. John's Society called in a body out of respect to Frank Fuscardo, Sr., a following member. Wednesday evening the Rev. Edmund V. Radford called at the home and led those assembled in the recitation of the Rosary. The Rev. Austin V. Carey of Our Lady of Victory chapel called and said prayers for the dead. Interment was in St. Mary's Cemetery where the Rev. Austin V. Carey assisted by Rev. Edmond V. Radford gave the final blessing. The bearers were Louis Nardi, John Maura, Ralph Guido, Anthony Gallo, Albert DeLucca and Charles Macchione.

Communist Leader Tells of Changes In Views on War

New York, Aug. 13 (AP)—Here is a U. S. Communist leader's description of how his views fluctuated in the early days of World War 2:

During the Hitler-Stalin pact of 1939-1941, he opposed American participation in the war.

After the Nazis turned on Russia and attacked her in June, 1941, he favored American entry into the conflict.

Robert G. Thompson, New York state Communist chairman, yesterday gave a Federal Court jury this picture of the changes in his position. He was under cross-examination by the government.

At first, he refused to say that after Hitler's invasion of Russia and before Pearl Harbor the Communist party here urged this country's entry into the war.

However, after a government attorney confronted him with a party document showing the party had switched to support of the war prior to Pearl Harbor, Thompson acknowledged the document was correct.

Thompson, one of 11 top Red leaders on trial on charges that they conspired to advocate forcible overthrow of the U. S. government, testified he spoke many times against U. S. entry into the war.

He said it was "very possible" that he advanced the slogan, "The Yanks Are Not Coming."

This, he said, was in the period before Russia was attacked.

Thompson served in the U. S. Army in the Pacific, and won the Distinguished Service Cross for heroism, the nation's second highest award.

Thompson said he was suffering from an attack of malaria when indicted July 20, 1948, and was cared for by friends until he surrendered to authorities nine days later.

Asked to give the names of the friends, he said:

"I certainly am not going to give you the name of the people who took care of me."

The witness also declined to give the name of the Communist party educational director for Queens county, N. Y., during the period covered by the indictment. Asked whether the director was his wife, he said:

"That makes no difference at all, and I am not going to give you the names of persons for possible prosecution."

He also refused to name the state educational director for the party.

However, immediately after his testimony ended, a man took the stand who identified himself as Howard Johnson, of Manhattan, "state educational director."

Johnson, put on the stand shortly before court adjourned for the week-end, resumes his testimony Monday when the trial goes into its 31st week.

Senator Taft . . .

held a brief conversation with them.

The Tafts arrived at 7:10 p. m. without ceremony or fanfare. The only persons on hand to greet the senator, in addition to Senator Wicks, were Raymond R. Gross, manager of the Governor Clinton Hotel, and representatives of this newspaper. Most of those in the hotel lobby were unaware of Senator Taft's presence until they saw the photographer's flash bulbs being set off.

The senator and his wife checked out of the hotel shortly before 9 a. m. today to continue their trip to Canada.

Senator Taft is the son of the late U. S. President William Howard Taft. He was first elected to the U. S. Senate in 1939 and has served continuously since. Prior to that time he was assistant counsel, U. S. Food Administration, from 1917 to 1919; member of the Ohio House of Representatives, 1921-1926, and member of the Ohio State Senate, 1931-1932. A graduate of Harvard Law School, 1913, he is a member of the law firm of Taft, Stettinius and Hollister, of Cincinnati.

Sponsored T.-H. Act

In the past several years his name has been in the news as co-sponsor of the Labor Management Relations (Taft-Hartley) Act of 1947, which became law June 23, 1947, after both houses of Congress had overridden President Truman's veto.

A modified form of the act drafted by Senator Taft was approved by the Senate on July 1 of this year.

Senator Taft, in the debate of the North Atlantic Pact in the Senate on July 21 proposed a reservation declaring the treaty did not morally or legally commit the U. S. in peace time to furnish arms, including the atom bomb, or information about the atom bomb, to its allies. He warned that without this reservation, the pact might lead to an "arms race." The reservation was defeated, but brought assurance from Senator Connally that the pact "is not based on arms."

Prior to Governor Thomas E. Dewey's nomination as Republican candidate for president last year, Senator Taft was mentioned prominently as possible Republican choice for that post.

Two Cars Collide

Automobiles driven by Margaret McSpirit of Hurley and John Nelson of 85 Lucas avenue collided at 2:30 a. m. today at the intersection of Lucas avenue and Washington avenue, the police reported. Both vehicles were considerably damaged, but no injuries were reported, police said.

70 New Polio Cases

New York, Aug. 13 (AP)—Seventy new cases of infantile paralysis were reported in New York today—the largest number for any 24-hour period this year. Four additional deaths also were reported. There now have been 918 cases and 70 deaths this year in what the health department continues to term a moderate polio epidemic.

Cain Charges Housing Official Exceeds Rights

Washington, Aug. 13 (AP)—A private attempt by Housing Expediter Tighe Woods to develop low-cost housing for veterans has brought a demand for his resignation by Senator Cain (R.-Wash.).

Cain told the Senate late yesterday that Woods violated the law and exceeded the authority of his office by writing to Chairman Spence (D.-Ky.) of the House Banking Committee urging direct government loans for low-cost housing.

Cain told the Senate that he, in turn, wrote Woods:

"In my opinion, you have, either by accident, which I trust is so, or by design, used the influence and the prestige of your high office in an effort to make money as a private citizen.

"What you have done, when it becomes apparent to others, will cause citizens generally to question and to lose faith in the integrity and character of their government." Cain added:

"I am inclined to believe that if you find it convenient to write about your private business on official times and stationery that you ought to be provided with an opportunity to spend all your time as you like but as a private citizen."

The housing expediter was not immediately available for comment.

The senator said Woods had violated a federal law against government officials or employes lobbying or trying to influence Congress unless called upon to do so.

Find $7,400 in Jail Bunk of Lothario, 73

Chicago, Aug. 13 (AP)—Jailers ripped $7,400 out of Sigmund Engel's shorts yesterday but it did not subtract much from the biggest current mystery at the Cook county klink.

Ever since the 73-year-old Lothario was arrested June 25 on charges of swindling widows whose love he courted, jailers have wondered about his apparent bottomless source of ready cash. He seems to be constantly in violation of jail rules in that respect.

A week ago, for instance, jailers said they found $35 in his possession. Jail rules limit prisoners to a maximum of $8. Again last Thursday, John Donnelly, assistant superintendent of the jail, said he found $134.70 in Engel's possession.

Donnelly decided yesterday to have an even more thorough look. He ordered the prisoner stripped and his clothes examined. The seams on Engel's underwear seemed a bit bulky and were ripped open. Out came 74 $100 bills.

The jailers were shocked, but not more so than Engel. The jail physician prescribed a sedative and ordered him removed to the hospital.

Donnelly quoted Engel as saying that the money had been in the shorts ever since he was taken to jail. All during his confinement, Engel has been washing his own shorts, Donnelly said.

Engel has been charged in two indictments with operating a confidence game in the alleged swindling of two Chicago widows out of about $20,000 after fast-developing romances.

At the time of his arrest, Engel was quoted by police as saying that he had fleeced women out of millions of dollars over a 50-year period, but stoutly insisted that he had done nothing wrong.

Favor Military Barter

Washington, Aug. 13 (AP)—Law makers voiced general approval today of a proposal to swap military supplies, with Canada, although some of them picked flaws in the plan. Secretary of Defense Johnson reported to President Truman and the cabinet yesterday that the Canadians want to barter warships, aircraft, small arms ammunition and other things they make for American supplies. This would help keep Canada's dollar reserves intact but still provide her with equipment she can get only in this country. The defense secretary said he is very much in favor of the idea. And so were many members of Congress.

Turn Down Irish

Strasbourg, France, Aug. 13 (AP)—By an overwhelming show of hands, the council of Europe's assembly today rejected Ireland's attempt to call up the Irish partition problem for debate. Ireland had sought to have the newly-created assembly take a hand in its long-standing demands for union of Northern Ireland with the 26-county republic to the south. Strong opposition to the controversial proposal came from most British delegates to the 101-member assembly. Since 1921 the six counties of Northern Ireland have been part of the United Kingdom, along with England, Scotland and Wales.

Rated as Confession

Nanking, Aug. 13 (AP)—Washington's White Paper was labeled by the Chinese Communists today as a confession of failure by the American government of a policy of "interference and aggression" in China. In the first official reaction, the Communist Hsinhua News Agency asserted the whole world benefitted by the White Paper's publication because it exposed "an insatiable American desire for interference and aggression in the affairs of others."

Will Unload Ships

Honolulu, Aug. 13 (AP)—Hawaii's new waterfront boss told the islands 540,000 residents last night the government would begin unloading strikebound ships early next week. Harbor Manager Ben F. Rush likewise told the striking C.I.O. International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union the territorial government would brook no interference in operating the seized docks.

CarBadlyDamaged In Truck Crash; Occupants Escape

Three adults and five children escaped apparent serious injury when the automobile in which they were riding was badly damaged in collision with a trailer truck at the intersection of Wurts and West Union streets at 12:22 a. m. today, the police reported.

The automobile, a 1936 Ford coach owned and driven by George Henry MacDonald of 163 Hunter street, was traveling north on Wurts street and attempting to turn left into West Union street when its left side was struck by the trailer truck, police said. Following the impact, both vehicles landed on the sidewalk in front of 11 Wurts street, damaging the curbing and a catch basin, police said.

MacDonald and his wife, Mrs. Nina MacDonald, suffered a "slight case shock," police said. Maude Blakeslee, 166 Downs street, suffered injuries about her left elbow and left hip, police said.

The three were accompanied in the automobile by the five MacDonald children, Donna Marie, 1; George, 7; Robert, 6; John, 3, and Linda, 2, police said, but no injuries were reported to any of the children.

The entire left side of the automobile was damaged and it had to be towed away, police said. The trailer truck, owned by the B. & R. Trucking Company of Frankfort and driven by William H. Champine, R.F.D. 1, Oneida, received damage to its front bumper and left front fender, police said. No arrests were made.

Gunman Shot to Death After Subway Holdup

New York, Aug. 13 (AP)—A gunman who had just held up an attendant at a subway station change booth was shot and killed by a transit policeman today as he fled along a busy Bronx street.

Police said the slain man and a companion robbed the change booth attendant at 149th street and Grand Concourse, The Bronx, of a bag containing $40 in change. The dead man carried a social security card bearing the name of William Stack.

As the two fled, the shouts of the attendant, Ingram Bowen, attracted the attention of Charles McCartin, a transit patrolman, who pursued the pair to the street. There McCartin overtook them, but they knocked him down and broke away.

Then McCartin fired two shots, felling one of the men. The other escaped. McCartin was taken to a hospital for treatment of a scalp would suffered when he was knocked down.

Seek Motive . . .

As for the committee's search for Hoffman, counsel Rogers said his staff tried unsuccessfully to reach the Milwaukeean by phone yesterday "so we issued a subpoena for him."

It was Gross who first brought up Hoffman's name at the inquiry into the operations of five percenters—persons who charge a fee for help in getting government contracts for others.

Gross testified that Hoffman put him in touch with a commission man whose aid, in this case, he sought about obtaining scarce steel.

Hoffman's name also has figured in secret testimony to the committee by Maragon. It is known that Maragon told the investigators that Hoffman also was associated with the Albert Verley Co., and that Hoffman accompanied him to Europe on business for the firm in 1945.

What the committee is trying to do is establish a reason for shipment of the freezers to Vaughan and the others. They want to find out whether it was an attempt to curry favor, and—if so—why.

Search for Youth

New York, Aug. 13 (AP)—A 10-year-old boy was reported missing from his West Farms, Bronx, home last night and an extended search of the area failed to turn up any clue as to his whereabouts, police said. The boy, Dominick Marchesa, of 1970 Mapes avenue last was seen, police said, in the Starlight Park area where eight-year-old Jack Goldsmith was found slain several months ago.

Two Accidents Happen As Cars Stop for Lights

Two accidents occurred in this city Friday afternoon when automobiles stopped for traffic lights and were struck in the rear by other vehicles, police reported.

The first occurred at 2:45 p. m. when an automobile owned by Theodore Steinberg of Mount Tremper stopped at the intersection of West O'Reilly street and Broadway and was struck in the rear by an automobile driven by Anthony M. Pavlik of Newburgh, police said. Both cars were damaged and Pavlik reported a slight bump on his wrist, according to the police.

The other similar accident occurred at the Rondout Creek bridge at 5:10 p. m. when a car driven by Robert W. Howard of Clifton Heights, Pa., was struck in the rear by another automobile driven by Lawrence Roberti, Dongan Hills, Staten Island, police said. The Roberti car had to be towed away and both vehicles were damaged, police said. Conrad Kern, a passenger in the Howard car, reported slight head injuries and was treated at Kingston Hospital, police said.

Senators Step Up Action On Reorganization Plans

Washington, Aug. 13 (AP)—Senate leaders today stepped up action on two government reorganization plans after President Truman tartly urged their approval as a sign of good faith by Congress.

In a strongly-worded letter to Vice President Barkley yesterday, Mr. Truman observed:

"The action taken on these plans will demonstrate whether the many recent professions of support for increased efficiency and economy in government are to be taken seriously or are to be written off as political oratory."

The two proposals—one to set up a cabinet-rank department of welfare, the other to transfer two employment agencies from the Federal Security Agency to the Labor Department—have received thumbs-down treatment from the Senate Expenditures Committee.

The President said Senate objections to the plans "appear to me to be ill-founded and mistaken." And he added that congressional failure to approve the proposals would imperil "the whole great endeavor" of government reorganization.

White-crowned sparrows feed their brood about 250 insects in a day, in addition to weed seed.
